A Broken Down System.

There is a disease to which the doctors give many names, but which few of them understand. It is simply weakness—a breaking down of the vital forces. Whatever its causes (and they are innumerable), its symptoms are in the main the same. Among the most prominent are extreme lassitude, loss of appetite, loss of flesh, and great mental depression. Indigestion and a Stomach Cough are also frequently concomitants of this distressing state of body and mind. The common remark in relation to persons in such a condition is, that they are consumptive. Now, what these unfortunates really want, is vigor—vital strength, and as certainly as dawn succeeds darkness they can recuperate their systems and regain perfect health by resorting to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters. It is as clear that a life-reviving Tonic is required in such cases, as that the dying flame of an empty lamp requires to be revived with a new supply of oil. Perfectly pure and innoxious, containing nothing but the most genial vegetable extracts, and combining the three grand elements of a stomachic, an alterative, and a genial invigorant. Hostetter's Bitters are suitable to all constitutions, and are as applicable to the diseases and disabilities of the feebler sex as to those of men.

Hostetter's Bitters

Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Fourth street.

Dissatisfaction of Swedish Emigrants—Speech of M. Thiers.

NEW YORK, March 11.—The Richmond Enquirer says that twenty-one Swedish immigrants, who passed through that city last summer, on their way to find employment in the interior of the State, have just returned much dissatisfied with their treatment, pay and food. Two of them, a man his wife, state that they were hired by a minister, for whom they labored five months, and who paid them off in Confederate money, a fraud which they did not discover until they undertook to pay their fare on the railroad. The party go directly to Chicago.

M. Thiers delivered a very remarkable speech in the Corps Legislative, on the 26th of February, on the address to the Emperor, in which he boldly advocated a greater measure of personal liberty of speech and the press and electoral freedom. He pointed to England and America as the only two civilized nations in which the will of the people was consulted. The address was repeatedly interrupted and cheered.

Occupancy of Lands in the South by Freedmen.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—President Johnson has assured George T. Downing, Chairman of the colored delegation at present in this city, sent here by the colored people of the States North and South, that no sudden change will take place affecting the occupancy of lands to which General Sherman gave the freedmen a possessory title. The President suggested that the freedmen should continue to cultivate said lands.

Mr. Downing has received letters from South Carolina from the parties interested, telling him of their fears that they might be suddenly removed from the lands they were cultivating—fears which arose on the receipt of the news of the veto of the Freedmen's Bureau bill.

When the fact was presented to the President he gave the above assurance.

Forgers Arrested.

NEW YORK, March 10.—Wm. Cannon and James Mitchell, aged respectively 18 years, were arraigned yesterday, on the charge of forgery. Cannon procured blank sheets from the printing office in whose employ they had been, and forged the name of the firm to three checks for three hundred dollars, three thousand dollars, and four thousand dollars, on the Central National Bank, and obtained the two first named sums, but the third check was the cause of their discovery and arrest. John Casey, Solomon Keefer, and Alexander Gray were arrested, on suspicion of being concerned in the scheme. The case is still under investigation.

Fire at Binghampton, New York.

ALBANY, March 10.—A fire broke out at Binghampton about one o'clock on Friday morning, in the factory of J. S. Matthews, on Commercial avenue. The flames communicated to the adjoining building, occupied by Weed & Ayres as a wholesale grocery and provision store. Both were entirely consumed. The insurance was $9,000 in the Springfield Fire and Marine, Columbia Home, and Liverpool and London companies, which will probably fall short of the loss some $6,000.

Boiler Explosion—Fireman Killed.

NEW YORK, March 10.—As the New Haven freight train, which left the city at 8:30 o'clock last evening, was waiting at the Harlem bridge for the Albany and Troy Express to pass, the boiler of the locomotive exploded, shattering the engine and everything connected with it, and instantly killing the fireman and dangerously wounding the engineer. The Albany and Troy Express train was delayed an hour and a half, and the Boston Express about 30 minutes.

Distilleries Seized.

NEW YORK, March 10.—Twenty distilleries were seized in this city, yesterday, by several officers on a charge of the proprietors defrauding the Government by omitting to pay the import levied on whisky in the Internal Revenue law. The charges against the parties will probably be investigated to-day.

Fenians Going to Canada.

BALTIMORE, March 11.—Rumors are circulating here that a body of eight hundred Fenians leave here to-morrow evening by the Northern Central Railroad for Canada, or elsewhere. It is proper to say that said reports are deemed utterly sensational.

GENERALS FREMONT AND CUSTAR IN WASHINGTON

POLITICAL AFFAIRS IN TEXAS GLOOMY

LEE AND THE CONFEDERACY OATH

DAMAGES FOR BRIDGES DESTROYED.

Lands Confiscated by Rebels Restored.

NEW YORK, March 10.—The Tribune's Washington special says: In the Supreme Court Mr. Stansbury and Attorney General Speed closed the arguments on behalf of the government in the Indiana conspiracy case.

David Dudley Field, of New York, will sum up on Monday for the petitioners of the 13th Connecticut, retained in the service at Savannah. They claim that their term of enlistment has been more than fulfilled, and great irritation among both officers and men exists. The 38th Illinois is in the same predicament.

Generals Custar and Fremont arrived in Washington yesterday.

Forty clerks were discharged from the Treasury Department yesterday.

Gen. Custar gives rather a gloomy account of political affairs in Texas. There is little if any loyalty outside our lines, and if our troops were withdrawn there would be none anywhere. Greenbacks are but seldom acknowledged to have any value, and gold and silver are the circulating medium. In many places greenbacks will not buy fuel or food. The idea that they will ever be paid is but seldom entertained. Matters are daily growing worse.

On the return of Gen. Howard another instalment of testimony will be ready for publication, among which is that of several rebel Generals.

Gen. Lee says he never took an oath to support the Confederacy; that he always purposely avoided it.

The Treasury Department yesterday received a telegram from Chicago announcing the death of Luther Havens, Collector of that port. His successor has not yet been appointed.

The Times' Washington special says: Hon. F. Thomas, of Maryland is preparing to make a claim before Congress on behalf of the State, for damages on account of the burning of two bridges on the route from Washington to Frederick, destroyed by order of General Lew Wallace, at the battle of Monocacy, in July, 1864. General Wallace, in response to inquiries from Mr. Thomas, says that he ordered the burning of the bridges to retard Early's march upon Washington, by depriving him of the facilities for crossing the stream, and that Early was thus detained thirty-six hours. A second object was to bring into action the forces detained to guard the bridges, as the overpowering number of Early's troops made it imperative to concentrate the federal forces to hold the rebels in check.

The further consideration of the Bankruptcy Bill will be resumed in the House on Wednesday or Thursday next. The friends of the bill have confidence in its passage, several of the members who heretofore opposed the bill having signified their intention of supporting it.

The World's Washington special says: The House Judiciary Committee, yesterday, authorized their chairman to report an important bill, to restore possession of the lands confiscated by the authorities of the States lately in rebellion. It provides that in all cases where any loyal citizen of the United States has been dispossessed of any lands or tenements belonging to him or her, within any of said States, by any order, proceeding or decree of those States, on the ground of his or her adherence to the Union, or his or her absence or failure to give support to said States, it shall be the duty of the President, or the Commanding officer of the military forces stationed within the particular State or district, by an order setting forth all the facts in the case, to restore to the person or persons so aggrieved, the possession and rights which they have been unjustly deprived of and to protect them in such rights.

CARD OF ROBERT DALE OWEN.

Conference Between Sir Francis Bruce and Mr. Seward.

SEIZURE OF VEAL CARCASSES.

Rebel Ex-Secretary Mallory Released.

COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS TO BE HELD.

NEW YORK, March 10.—A Washington special states that Robert Dale Owen publishes a card in the National Intelligencer, regarding the published statement that he is urging Congress to endorse the Mexican loan. He says he agreed to act with another gentleman as counsel for the Republic of Mexico, irrespective of private interest. The other gentleman referred to, is supposed to be Ex-Governor Andrew of Massachusetts.

It is stated that the Imperial Government of Mexico, has just paid the New York and Vera Cruz Steamship line $50,000 in gold, being a portion of the subsidy granted by Maximilian for the encouragement of the commerce of the Empire.

The Express says it has excellent authority for stating that several conferences have taken place between Secretary Seward and Sir Francis Bruce, British Minister at Washington, upon the subject of the Fenian movement. The latter has been assured that no violation of the neutrality will be permitted. Should events demonstrate its necessity, a proclamation will be promptly issued on the first attempt to violate the neutrality laws, warning all engaged, of the consequences.

Over two hundred carcasses of three days old veal, were seized by the Sanitary police, in the Washington Market, yesterday, and over fifty to-day.

Ten thousand dollars reward is offered for the thief who stole one million five hundred thousand dollars from Lord's banking house.

Five hundred soldiers, under command of Col. Sumner, sailed in the steamer Henry Chauncey to-day, for San Francisco. Lieutenant Commander Pendergast, Professor St. Mary and Col. Blake, were also among the passengers.

Some thirty distilleries in this city and vicinity, were seized yesterday and to-day, by the revenue officers, for alleged violations of the internal revenue act. One of the officers, named Cummings, while inspecting the premises of one, fell into a vat and was drowned.

Charles Foster, a proprietor of a brewery in Brooklyn, had his skull smashed yesterday, by his foreman. The latter was arrested.

The Legislature to-day voted down a resolution favoring the eight hour labor movement.

NEW YORK, March 10—On Friday afternoon, in accordance with orders from Washington, S. R. Mallory, ex-Secretary of the Confederate Navy, was released from Fort Lafayette. He has been in failing health for some time, and it is understood that he was released in consequence of representations by physicians that prolonged confinement would prove fatal. He will join his family, which has been residing for some time in Connecticut.

Archbishop Spaulding, of Baltimore, has received letters from the Pope of Rome appointing him Apostolic delegate, with authority to convene a Plenary Council of all archbishops and bishops in the United States during the present year and to preside over them. This council, it is thought, will be assembled sometime in September or October. It is further understood that Bishop Spaulding is to be constituted a cardinal at no distant day.

The Richmond Republic begs Southerners not to emigrate to Brazil or to Mexico. It says: It would be easy to understand that freedmen should desire to emigrate to those countries, for not only is the climate suited for their constitution, but there are no prejudices against their color. They have the right of suffrage if they possess a certain amount of property, and are eligible to seats in legislative and high official posisions. It is an odd idea, certainly, for white people to leave the South, from an apprehension that negroes may be admitted to political equality, and go to countries where they have that equality already, and where emigrating whites may find black officials over their heads. The Prefect of Cordova, where Sterling Price and his colony are, is a negro and an Imperial official.

THE FENIAN ALARM IN CANADA.

McGee's Alleged Fenian Letters.

ARRIVAL OF NAPOLEON'S AGENT IN MEXICO.

NEW YORK, March 11.—The Herald's Toronto correspondent gives further particulars of the Fenian alarm. A regiment has been ordered from Toronto to the Niagara frontier, and another from London to the Western frontier. Absurd rumors are afloat of the approach of General Sweeney with three distinct columns via Niagara, Ogdensburg and Detroit.

M'Gee in his letter to B. D. Killian respecting his alleged Fenian epistles, says if the same disregard for facts is shown by him relative to the said forgery occurs again, he will invoke the verdict of his fellow-countrymen upon it, and says his record in Canada has been clear and bright, and shall remain so.

The Herald's Mexico City correspondent notices the arrival in that city, from Europe, of Arch Duke Eleenne, brother of Maximilian and Louis Napoleon's agent, and states that the latters mission is very different from that heretofore announced, to convey to Maximilian intelligence of the intended withdrawal, by the Emperor, of the French troops, but to assure Maximilian that he must tacitly submit to Napoleon's directions; he stated that Maximilian succumbs, and six hundred thousand dollars in French money was immediately produced to pay his troops. Another attempt to assassinate Maximilian was reported.

Railroad Stock.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 10.—The tax payers of Utica, by a vote of 1,055 to 339, have decided that the city will take stock to the amount of half a million dollars, in the Utica, Chenango and Susquehanna Valley Railroad.

Probable Resignation of Lord Russell.

AFFAIRS BETWEEN AUSTRIA AND PRUSSIA CRITICAL.

Banquet to the American Minister.

SETTLEMENT OF THE BHOOTAN AFFAIR.

Two Chilian Privateers Seized.

FOREIGN MARKETS, &c.

NEW YORK, March 11.—The steamer City of Boston, from Liverpool on the 28th ultimo, via Queenstown on the 1st instant, arrived this afternoon.

The Times, after expatiating on the want of unanimity in Russell's Cabinet, says: It is not surprised at the rumor that Lord Russell asks the Queen to relieve him of his duties. The Times admits that the rumor wants authenticating. The bill discusses, as if it was a fixed fact, and supposes that a new Liberal Cabinet will be formed and suggests that Duke Somerset is the possible head. No other journals say anything on the subject.

The Irish question was discussed in the House of Lords. Earl Marey gave notice that he would move at an early day for the full consideration of the subject.

The London Times bitterly denounces the bad taste of Bancroft's oration.

The condition of Fenian affairs remains unchanged. Arrests continue, plentiful in all directions, and arms and ammunition are frequently seized.

Charles Phillips, keeper of the Privy purse, and private secretary to the Queen is dead.

The Paris Memorial Diplomatique says that the mission of Baron Saillard to Mexico is a mere starting point for the negotiation for the withdrawal of the French troops. The report that five thousand will return in May is, at least, very premature. The French expedition, to the end of 1865, cost twenty-seven millions sterling, and eleven thousand men have been killed and disabled.

The London Star has reason to know that the relations of Austria and Prussia, relative to the Duchies, is very critical, and even hints a possible war.

The American Minister had a grand banquet at the Marine Club Cronstadt. A fraternal sentiment was interchanged.

The forced abdication of Prince Cousea is confirmed. Count Flanders was offered but declined the hospodarship. It is supposed that an European conference will be held on the subject.

The government received a telegram in twenty-one hours, from India, announcing the settlement of the Bhootan affair.

VERY LATEST.—Liverpool, March 1.—The Bank rate is unchanged.

The rumor of the resignation of Lord Russell is emphatically denied.

Fenian affairs in Ireland are unchanged, but the military force is to be further augmented.

The English Government has seized two vessels at London, which were fitting out for the Chilian Government.

The Cotton sales of Wednesday and Thursday, 27,000 bales, including 11,000 bales to speculators and exporters. The market was a trifle higher, but closed very dull.

The Manchester market was still advancing.

Breadstuffs quiet, and nominally unchanged. Provisions, generally firm. Lard firmer.

ITALY.—The Chamber of Deputies passed a bill for the provisional budget, by 258 against 58 votes.

Gen. Lamarmora had delivered a speech describing the actual position held by the Cabinet. He refuted the charge of having shown too ready a compliance with the wishes of France, and said that the French and Italian Governments have each their own views respecting the future; but the September Convention shall be faithfully carried out with regard to the apportionment of the Pontifical debt. That question forms the subject of the present negotiations with France.

Gen. Lamarmora then proceeded to give certain explanations respecting the Pontifical legion, which he said would have no connection with the French Government. He rejects the advice which had been offered, that Italy should break off diplomatic relations with Spain, and concluded by stating that no political negotiations were at present being carried on between Austria and Italy, nor had the Italian Government come to any decision respecting commercial relations between the two countries.

DUBLIN.—A policeman in Castlelow, in the county of Kerk, and another from the neighborhood of Fermoy, of the same county have been arrested on a charge of Fenianism. Five Irish Americans were arrested to-day, and documents of a suspicious character found on them. Their names are Thomas O'Brien, Michael McGenn, Thomas Doherty Brougham, John Dunne and Jeremiah Farrell. Eleven arrests are reported at Castlebar on Tuesday night. They all belong to the working class.

Liverpool, Feb. 28th, Morning.—Cotton active; sales on Monday and Tuesday 27,000 bales, including 12,000 bales for speculation and export. Prices improved, and American ¼d above the quotations of Saturday last. Trade at Manchester fair, and business yesterday at full rates of last week, with prices generally tending upward. Richardson, Spence & Co., and Wakefield, Nash & Co., report flour very quiet at low rates, and Wheat in moderate demand at unchanged prices; Winter, Red and Southern, at 10s@10s 1d. THIRTY DISTILLERIES SEIZED.

INTERNAL REVENUE DETECTIVE FOUND DEAD.

Fraudulent Returns of a Cattle Dealer

NEW YORK, March 10.—Nearly thirty distilleries have been seized by revenue officers yesterday and to-day. It is estimated that there are one thousand distilleries in this city. It is deemed best for the interests of the government to withhold the names of the suspected distilleries. Detectives have been engaged for the past six weeks in investigating the frauds charged, and it is ascertained positively—that on a large proportion of the alcoholic liquors sold by distilleries no duties are paid. The distilleries seized are in various portions of the city. It is reported that some of them are on 11th, 17th, 18th and 30th streets. The officers in the course of their tour among the distilleries discovered many of the modes in which the law is evaded. In one instance, where a descent was made on a house on 30th street, it was found that a distillery was located in a soap boiling establishment. The steam arising from the still was conveyed through the soap channel to prevent suspicion. After the detectives entered the premises they discovered a trap door leading to an apartment below where a large still was in operation, which was capable of manufacturing sixty gallons at a time. In another place they found brandy being manufactured from old printers' rollers for sake of the molasses, of which they are partially composed.

NEW YORK, March 10.—W. E. Griffith, Government Internal Revenue Detective, acting as keeper of a distillery on Thirty-ninth street, was found dead this morning under circumstances which gave rise to the suspicion that he was murdered. The Internal Revenue Department had seized the distillery of Sawyer on a charge of having evaded the Revenue law. A later account says the name of the deceased is Cummings, and that he, with Mr Blauvelt, also a Revenue officer, were engaged in making an inventory of the place when he lifted up a trap door in a corner of the vault thinking that it led to the cellar stairs, and fell in. His companion, Mr. Blauvelt, ran for assistance to rescue him, and officer McTaggart entered the place and succeeded in extricating Mr. Cummings, but life was quite extinct.

Barney Bertram, cattle dealer, was brought before Commissioner Osborne charged with returning to the Assessor of the Ninth District a false and fraudulent account or statement of his sales as cattle broker for the year 1864. The evidence showed that his first return was $100,000, which he stated was from memory. Afterwards the Assessor notified him to make a return from his books. He sent in the amount as $281,000, whereas on subsequent investigation by the Revenue officers the amount of his sales from May 1st, 1864, to May 1st, 1865, was $314,774.50.

An additional distillery was seized yesterday, the owners charged with making false returns and defrauding the government.

Stated bonds of O'Mahoney's Irish Republic are being extensively counterfeited.

West India advices state that hostilities have been commenced between Domingo and Hayti. Buenos Ayres intelligence gives no news of additional fighting, though the hostile forces of the allies and the Paraguayans still remained in close contiguity. A lack of stores still prevailed in both armies.

From Fortress Monroe.

FORTRESS MONROE, March 9.—Captain C. B. Wilder of the Freedmen's Bureau, who for four years has been in charge of the negroes on the Peninsula, has been relieved, and Brigadier General Armstrong, late Colonel of the 8th United States colored troops, has been appointed Superintendent of the district. Capt. G. S. Wills has been appointed Assistant Superintendent, in connection with Lieut.-Col. W. H. Seip, late of the First United States colored cavalry, with headquarters at Williamsburg. Large fires were observed to-day in the woods near Cape Henry.

Paymaster of the U. S. Navy Flogged.

NORFOLK, VA., March 11.—M. Flint, Paymaster of the United States Navy, and sub-editor, under Charles W. Butts, of the Norfolk Old Dominion, was flogged in his office yesterday by three gentlemen. Mr. Flint will survive his wounds. Upon the approach of the assailants the assistant editors fled, including Mr. Butts.

THE RINDERPEST IN EUROPE.

American Schooner Wrecked.

$20,000 REBELS PARDONED.

Freedmen Affairs in Missouri.

THE FRENCH EXPOSITION.

WASHINGTON, March 10—Afternoon.—The United States Consul at Liverpool informs the State Department that the rinderpest is still on the increase. No remedy has yet been found that meets with any general confidence, although there are several that promise well. The official report for the week ending February 17th, state the number of new cases to be 13,001. This is an increase of 2,437 over the number reported last week, and 3,848 over the number reported as having been attacked the week before last.

The United States Consul at Gibraltar reports, in his dispatches to the Department of State, dated February 26, 1866, the wreck of the American coasting schooner Edwin Reed, of Boston, Massachusetts. She sunk on the 12th inst., in latitude 35 east, 7 degrees north, longitude 62 east, 5 degrees west, in a few minutes after her crew were taken off by the Hanover brig, Captain Hinch. The Edwin Reed was from Philadelphia with a cargo of coals for Boston, was blown to sea, and lost her sails, spars, boats and masts. The crew were all saved, together with the ship's papers.

The President has pardoned thirteen individuals in the State of Alabama since the publication of the amnesty proclamation, under the twenty thousand dollar clause. The number pardoned under the 13th exception in the Border States is very few. Most of them who have been pardoned came under the 10th exception.

Gen. Sprague, Assistant Commissioner of freedmen's affairs for the State of Missouri, said in his report to the Commissioner, under date of February 20th, 1866, that 484 more rations were issued to white refugees in the month of January than in December, as the number of refugees requiring assistance had increased 191. The number of rations issued to freedmen in January were 1,151 less than the issue in December, the dependent free people having diminished 167 since the close of last year. He believes that the issue to the white refugees will have to be increased, because in many parts of the district there was but a scanty supply of food last fall, and this has been exhausted. The poor are without money or means to procure food from a distance, and there seems to be no alternative but to supply the helpless women and children from the Government commissary stores, or leave them to starve to death. The Commissioner, therefore, is placing a liberal construction on the word "refugees," and is preventing starvation in all parts of the district. He estimates the number of helpless poor that will be dependent on the Government for support during the next three months to be about forty thousand. Two hundred and fifty boxes of clothing have also been distributed among the destitute white people.

The Committee of Ways and Means has agreed to report a very considerable reduction in the Internal Revenue taxation, and especially to repeal the tax of six cents per ton now levied on freight.

The Prince Imperial is announced in the Moniteur of the 23d ult. as the honorary President of the Paris exposition. The business of the agency at New York is in a most satisfactory condition.

Mechanical applications will be received for a few days longer by the Commissioner of Agricultural Societies, with a view to a full representation of our agricultural productions. There will be sixty or ninety days yet for agricultural applications.

The board, for the examination of breech loading arms, of which Gen. Hancock is President, is now in session, at Winder's building. Arms will be received daily from 11 o'clock A. M. until 2 o'clock P. M., until further notice. Inventors are requested to present their arms in person, or by agent, to the recorder of the record.

HEAVY ROBBERY IN NEW YORK.

Million and a Half Dollars in Stocks and U. S. Bonds Stolen.

REWARD OF TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS.

NEW YORK, March 10.—The Commercial states that the banking house of Rufus Lord, in Exchange place, was robbed, a few hours since, of a million and a half of dollars in United States and other securities.

The property stolen from the safe of Rufus Lord, contained Government securities composed of Five Twenties, Ten Forties and Seven Thirties, bonds of 1881 besides Chicago, North Western, Terre Haute and Alton, and other Railroad bonds and various securities. A very large reward will be given for the securities, or for any information that will lead to their recovery.

NEW YORK, March 10.—One of the heaviest robberies ever committed was the abstraction of bonds from Lord's banking house this morning. It is thought that the perpetrator was a sneak thief, who waited his opportunity after a steady reconnoissance, and when the coast was clear, to take possession of the bonds. The amount is believed to reach nearly a million and a half dollars in bonds and stock certificates. Two hundred thousand dollars reward is offered. There should be fifty-five 7-30 bonds of $500 each, from 1,096 to 1,115, inclusive, and from 2,580 to 2,650, inclusive, with some others not serial due February 15th, 1868; twenty-five bonds of one thousand dollars each, 38,085 to 38,109; forty bonds of $5,000 each, various numbers; seventy-five bonds of $1,000 each, loan of 1881, various numbers; nine 10-40 bonds of $10,000 each, number 292 to 301, inclusive; twenty 10-40 bonds of $5,000 each, numbers 283 to 304, inclusive; fifty bonds Oregon war debt, of $500; sixteen United States 7-30 coupon bonds of $1,000 each, dated August 15th, 1864—three years; five U. S. 7-30 bonds of $500 each, 15th of August, 1864—three years, 2,100 to 2,104; three U. S. 7-30 bonds of $5,000 each, June 15th, 1865—three years, 1,508 to 1,509 and 1,510; five U. S. 7-30 bonds of $1,000 each, July, 1865; eight U. S. 7-30 bonds of $500 each, various numbers, 15th of August, 1864—three years; twenty-six U. S. coupon bonds of $1,000 each, payable in 1881, various numbers; fourteen U. S. 5-20 registered of $5,000 each, various numbers; four U. XXXVIIIth CONGRESS---FIRST SESSION

WASHINGTON, March 10, 1866.

HOUSE.

The House sat as in Committee of the Whole, nothing being in order but a general debate on the President's message. Mr. Orth, of Indiana, addressed the House an hour in defense of the course of Congress as against the policy of the President.

Mr. Orth, of Indiana, addressed the House. He defended Congress from the charge of dilatoriness in legislation. The untiring and senseless clamor for speedy action, came he said from those whose hearts had not been on the side of the country during the war. Slowly, surely and deliberately Congress would pursue its work, determined to do it right, regardless of clamor, abuse or vituperation. He held that the legislative branch of the general Government was alone clothed with authority to recognize State Governments, and this was in accordance with the views of the people.

Mr. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, next obtained the floor. He commenced by apologizing to the House for the tameness of the remarks, which he intended to make especially for their untimeliness, it would be remembered that at the opening of the session he (Mr. Stevens) had made some remarks on the condition of the country, which had been replied to by a gentleman from New York, (Mr. Raymond) and the gentleman from Ohio, (Mr. Delano), a recess had followed immediately, and when Congress reassembled for business on the 8th of January, he (Mr. Stevens) had prepared some reply, and had obtained the floor for the purpose of making it, but in consideration of the gentleman from West Virginia, (Mr. Latham) who desired to make a speech, he yielded the floor and had never since been able to retain for general debate, but this was a school for debate, and as it had been intimated to him that in his turn, he had dug up the old manuscript, and although its contents were rather tame and had been all said by himself, or others long since, he did not wish to lose the paper and would now read what he proposed to say on that occasion. (Laughter.) Mr. Stevens then went on to read the manuscript which was devoted to strengthening his position in regard to the status of the Rebel States, referring to the position which some journals had assigned to him of hostility to the President, he said that those journals had done him too much honor, and he would now say, once for all, that instead of feeling any personal animosity toward the President, he felt great respect for him. He honored his integrity, his patriotism, his courage and his good intentions. The President had stood too firmly in the midst of danger and sacrifice to allow him (Stevens,) to doubt the purity of his intentions. But all this did not make him (Stevens) less free to doubt the judgment of the President and criticize his policy. When he deemed the views of the President erroneous, he should say so. While he could have no hostility to the President, he might and did have very great objections to the course he was pursuing. He should have forgotten the obliquity which he (Stevens) had calmly borne for thirty years in war for liberty, if he should turn craven now.

Mr. Price, of Iowa—I ask the gentleman from Pennsylvania, Mr. Stevens, whether there must not be a mistake in this when I hear him speak in such warm terms of the President, and when the public press of the country has been, for the last few weeks, using the name of a certain Thaddeus Stevens, as having been mentioned by the President in a speech in front of the White House; and now when I hear the gentleman, whom I supposed to be the Thaddeus Stevens referred to, speak in such strong terms in favor of the President, I want to hear him say with his own lips whether he is the same person or some one else. [Laughter.]

Mr. Stevens—Mr. Speaker: Does the learned gentleman from Iowa, Mr. Price, suppose for a single moment that the speech to which I presume he refers as having been made in front of the White House, was an actual fact. [Laughter.] I desire now to put the gentleman right. What I am now going to say, however, I do not wish to have repeated. It is a confidential communication [laughter,] and I presume that nobody will violate the confidence which I repose in him by repeating it. Sir, that speech which has been imposed upon the gentleman from Iowa, and which has had a considerable run, and which has made some impression on the public mind, was one of the grandest hoaxes that has ever been perpetrated, and more successful than any other except that, "which I am told deceived many astute astronomers." [Laughter.] I am now glad of an opportunity, although I do not wish it to go out publicly, lest my motive might be misunderstood, of exonerating the President from ever having made that speech. [Laughter.] It is a part of the cunning contrivances of the Copperhead party which has been persecuting our President since the 4th of March, 1865. Taking an advantage of an opportunity which happened on that occasion, they have been ever since constantly denouncing him as addicted to low and degrading vices, to show you that in order to prove the truth of what I say about this hoax, I send up to be read a part of that same slander, taken from the New York World, of March 7th, 1865.

The following extract from the New York World, of March 1865, was then read by the clerk:

"The drunken and beastly Caligula, the most profligate of the Roman Emperors, raised his horse to the dignity of Consul, an office that in former times had been filled by the greatest warriors and statesmen of the Republic—the Scipios and Catos, and by the mighty Julius himself. The Consulship was scarcely more disgraced by that scandalous transaction than is our Vice Presidency by the late election of Andrew Johnson. That office had been adorned in better days by the talent and accomplishments of Adams and Jefferson, Clinton and Calhoun and Van Buren, and now to see it filled by this insolent, drunken brute, in comparison with whom even Caligula's horse was respectable, for the poor animal did not abuse his own nature. And to think that one frail life stands between this insolent, clownish drunkard and the Presidency. May God spare and bless Abraham Lincoln."

Mr. Niblack, of Indiana—I beg to inquire whether that may not also be a hoax in the same way as the speech of the President was. (Laughter.)

Mr. Stevens—That was a serious and insulting slander. The New York World, taking advantage of an incident which it is thought by many was brought about by the Copperheads themselves, and they have ever since been persecuting him with such slander as that, but although they have asserted from time to time they have never made the loyal republican people of this nation believe it, and they never can, but look with indignation on the slander thus uttered against the President of our choice. (Laughter.) Now, if these slanders could make the people believe that the President ever uttered that speech then they have made their case. (Continued laughter.) But we know that the President never uttered it. It is not possible, and I am glad of this opportunity to relieve him from that odium. They had, indeed, wrought the whole story in a very cunning way.

Mr. Winfield, of New York—May I hope the injunction of secrecy will be removed from this earnest and sincere defense. (Laughter.)

Mr. Stevens, with a seriousness of manner that irresistably provoked laughter, exclaimed: "Oh, I hope not, sir." I hope the gentleman will not violate the confidence which I have placed in him and others in this confidential communication. Now, Mr. Speaker, they had worked up the whole thing pretty cunningly, enough to impose upon the people. For instance, they went into circumstantial accounts, as in the great moon hoax. They pretended that the lawyers of the assassins of the late President escorted President Johnson to the stone wall, on which they said he stood, in front of the White House. They also pretended that he was supported by a late rebel Major, who was furnished, gratuitously, with lodgings in one of our penal forts for some time. All these circumstances they threw about the matter. The people may have been deceived, but we, who know the President, know it was a lie from the start. (Laughter.) Now, for having shown my friend from Iowa (Mr. Price) that all the foundation for that thing was fallacious, I trust he will allow me to occupy the same friendly position to the President which I have occupied heretofore.

Mr. Price—I am satisfied that the House and the country will agree with me that that was a mistake, and a very great mistake. If I have not lived in this world as long as the honorable gentleman from Pennsylvania, yet I have found that history cannot always be depended upon, and but for the accidental occurrence of the speech made to-day by the gentleman from Pennsylvania, the speech of the President would have gone down to history as a fact, and the present or succeeding generations would never have discovered the mistake thus opportunely exposed. [Laughter.]

Mr. Stevens then resumed the reading of his manuscript. Speaking of the contest between the President and Congress he said there was but one Union paper in the country that opposed the policy of Congress. Every newspaper in his own State except one, a formidable concern in Philadelphia, and one newspaper in Harrisburg, edited by the postmaster, sustained Congress, and so did every organ in the State whose editor was not an applicant for office. He did not speak of New York in this connection, for he did not know much about her—no one did except Secretary Seward, who professed to understand her—but every paragraph in New York papers lauding the President, was but the outcries of an official advertisement. At the close of his speech he said he delivered it on the same principle as the late President had sent in his veto message to a bill which he had already signed—because he had written the veto and thought it well done—so he now offers this speech to be cast upon the surges of this turbulent debate.

Mr. Goodyear, of New York, next addressed the House in support of the policy of the President as against that of Congress.

Mr. Holmes next addressed the House on the question of the reconstruction of the rebel States, advocating the course of Congress as against that of the President. Adjourned.

FENIAN SCARE IN CANADA.

THE RECIPROCITY QUESTION.

BUFFALO, March 11.—Dispatches from Canada show great excitement there. Bishop Lynch has denounced the Fenian movement. All passengers and their baggage coming into Canada are searched, and arms taken when found. Express goods and freight trains will be closely watched. The military and volunteers are collecting in large numbers.

The Customs Department has issued a circular to Collectors stating that it is not considered that the abrogation of the reciprocity treaty will have the effect of reviving any pre-existing customs duties attached to the importation into Canada of the present list of free goods which are to continue to be admitted free from any part of the world until the Legislature shall deem it advisable to reimpose duties thereupon, with the exception of dried fruits, the growth of the United States, furs, skins, pelts, and tails, undressed, when imported directly from the United States, which will, after March 17th, be liable to a duty of 20 per cent.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Important to Discharged Soldiers—A State Convention to be Called in this City.

A preliminary meeting of soldiers was held in Harrisburg, on Friday last, with a view to take such action as would secure a call for a State Convention at an early day. Gen. Joshua T. Owen, Gen. F. H. Collier, Gen. Collis, Gen. Harry White, and other distinguished officers were present. Gen. Owen acted as Chairman, and Col. Rogers, of Erie, as Secretary. The following preamble and resolution, offered by Gen. Harry White, were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Those citizens who have borne arms in defence of the life of the nation, have peculiar interests and feelings in the present posture of the political affairs of the country; and are desirous of securing proper results of the late civil war, and of assuring the future peace and harmony of the Union; And whereas, An expression of the desires and feelings of the late soldiers of the country cannot fail to have a salutary effect upon the political sentiment of Pennsylvania: therefore,

Resolved, That Major General J. F. Hartranft, late of the United States army, and now a citizen of Norristown, is hereby requested and authorized to issue to the discharged soldiers of Pennsylvania a call for a Soldiers' Convention, to be held in the city of Pittsburgh, on a day not later than May 10th, 1866, to be designated in said call; said Convention to be composed of not more than five delegates from each representative district of the State; the manner of selection of such delegates in the different districts to be designated in said call.

More Rowdyism on the Cars—Heavy Fines.

On Saturday night, at a late hour, three young men, who gave their names as John Toumy, Dominick English and John Alexander, acted in an outrageous manner in one of the cars on the Pittsburgh and Manchester Passenger Railway. The parties, while drunk, took passage on one of the cars for Manchester, and on reaching a point near the Penitentiary, commenced an onslaught on some of the passengers and took possession of the horses. The ladies who were in the car were compelled to leave, very much frightened, and walk home. One of the male passengers managed to convey information of the occurrence to the police, and officers Bowden, Green and Sarber repaired to the spot and arrested the guilty parties. Information was made against the ruffians on Sunday by Mr. A. J. Caughey, the driver of the car, and Mayor Mayor Morrison inflicted fines and costs upon them to the amount of fifty-six dollars. They raised this sum after considerable difficulty, and were discharged on payment.

Pittsburgh M. E. Conference.

THIRD DAY.

Conference assembled at the usual hour, (8 A. M.) Bishop Baker in the chair. Rev. Dr. Wakefield, author of an excellent work on Theology, conducted the opening religious services. Minutes read and adopted.

The 4th Question—"Who are the Deacons?" was taken up, and J. Gray, J. R. Mills, N. P. Kerr, J. H. Ekey, W. A. Allen, J. B. Uber, J. M. Bray, Jr., S. G. Miller, T. S. Hodgson, J. J. Jones, G. M. Wood and J. Gledhill, were examined and passed. Lewis Paine, of this class, was granted a Supernumerary relation without an appointment. Rev. J. R. Mills, in the above list, is the son of Mr. James Mills, a merchant of Pittsburgh.

The 2d Question—"Who remain on trial?" was next taken up, H. C. Beacom, C. McCaslin, D. A. Pierce, J. H. Concle, J. W. McGregor, W. H. McBride, J. C. Castle, F. I. Swaney and C. Knowles were examined, passed, and on motion continued on trial. These young ministers have just passed through the first year of their ministry, since their connection with the Conference. If they serve with acceptance during the coming year, at the next session they will be entitled to full membership in the Conference, and to election and ordination to Deacons' Orders. These young ministers were examined in certain studies, and reports made in open Conference, and also their respective Presiding Elders represented the character of their labors and acceptability. W. J. Mills was discontinued at his own request. This young man shortly after his appointment, became discouraged and left his work, and has since been teaching. Notwithstanding he confessed he did wrong and asked forgiveness, and desired to have an appointment when his engagement expired in September next, he was discontinued. The Conference is very rigid in such matters, it being regarded as a very unbecoming act for a Methodist preacher to leave his work in that way.

The 3d Question—"Who are admitted into full connection?" was taken up, and the class eligible to admission into full connection—consisting of A. R. Chapman, W. H. Morton and W. Pittinger—were called before the Bishop, who addressed them in an earnest speech of great simplicity, chaste in language, forcible in delivery, and highly spiritual in its character. After the Bishop's address, the usual Disciplinary questions were asked, and satisfactorily answered. After the examination their characters passed, and they were admitted into full connection, and elected to Deacons' Orders. These young ministers had been on trial two years. At this point in their ministerial career great stress is laid upon them, as to the necessity of weighing well the important step they are about to take—namely, assuming Deacons' Orders and entering into full connection, as members of the Conference. Of this class, Rev. W. Pittinger, it is noteworthy that he was one of the young men engaged in the great railroad adventure in Dixie, which occurred in the early part of the rebellion. Since then he has published a work entitled "Daring and Suffering: A History of the Great Railroad Adventure," which has had quite an extended circulation.

Seventh question—"Who are the Supernumerary," was taken up. J. M. Thomas, W. M. McCracken, I. Aiken, S. Lewis, and S. Baker, were examined, and on motion, their relation was continued. L. Petty, of this class, by request, was granted a Superannuated relation. When the name of A. G. Williams was called, his Presiding Elder stated he had withdrawn from the ministry and membership of the M. E. Church, and the letter containing his withdrawal and his parchments were placed in charge of the Secretary. On motion, the Secretary was directed to enter the name of A. G. Williams as withdrawn from the Church.

Rev. F. Ball, of West Virginia Conference, Prof. Loomis, of Wheeling Female College, Prof. Tingley, of Allegheny College, and W. H. Kincaid, Lay Steward from Pittsburgh District, were introduced by the Bishop to the Conference, the members rising.

The eleventh question—"Who are the effective Elders?" was resumed. Rev. W. Cox, P. E. of Washington District, Rev. James L. Deens, P. E. of Barnesville District, Rev. John Moffatt, P. E. of McConnelsville District, and Rev. J. Henderson, P. E. of Cambridge District, represented the spiritual and financial condition of their respective districts. After each Presiding Elder's name was called, the effective elders of his district were examined, passed, and their relation continued. P. K. McCue and G. G. Waters were granted a Superannuated relation.

Revs. E. B. Snyder, J. Coil, and J. C. Taylor were granted leave of absence after this session. At this point it was announced that Rev. G. McKee had been transferred to the Missouri Conference.

The eleventh question was resumed. Rev. D. L. Dempsey, P. E. of Steubenville District and Rev. J. Williams, P. E. of Allegheny District, represented their respective districts, after which the preachers in the bounds of the same were examined, passed, and continued in their present relation. During the course of the remarks of Rev. D. L. Dempsey, he alluded to the decease of his only child, wife of Mr. Pearce, late Pension Agent at Pittsburgh, whose death preceded hers a short time, in touching words. He had the sympathy of the Conference.

The following was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Rev. E. B. Snyder having been transferred to this Conference from the East Baltimore Conference, therefore,

Resolved, That we welcome him among us as a brother beloved, entitled to our confidence and esteem.

It was signed by the following persons: Revs. S. H. Nesbit, W. A. Davidson, C. A. Holmes, W. H. Locke, T. N. Boyle, J. Horner, I. N. Baird, I. C. Pershing.

A resolution was adopted commending W. S. Blackburn, who had just been transferred to the Missouri Conference.

The following was passed:

WHEREAS, The General Conference has expressed its approval of the introduction of Lay Delegation into the highest Church Council, whenever our people shall wish this, therefore,

Resolved, That we fully and heartily endorse this action of the General Conference. Signed by Revs. S. H. Nesbit, C. A. Holmes, G. Loomis, I. C. Pershing and J. Horner.

The report of the Committee on Temperance takes high ground, fully maintaining the character of the body on that question.

The Committee on Appeal of Rev. Edward Holmes, presented a report reversing the decision of the Quarterly Conference of New Brighton Station, and restoring him to his former standing as a Local Elder of the Church.

The Committee on the State of the Country reported a paper of much length, in which the radical element swings high above fawning conservatism. By a standing vote of 88 to 56, the report was laid upon the table, and is made the order of business for to-morrow (Saturday) morning, after the minute business is disposed of. A lively discussion is expected.

A letter was read from the venerable Rev. Joshua Monroe, who has reached the great age of eighty years, in which he refers to the kindness and beneficence of the friends of the Church to him, and of his comfortable spiritual condition and prospect of soon entering the better land. He also requested the Conference to appoint trustees to take charge of the funds already collected and may be for the erection of "Monroe Chapel" in China. Rev. Dr. Nesbit and Rev. J. H. Ebbert were appointed.

Conference adjourned with doxology and benediction by Rev. J. M. Bray, Sr.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY.

The Conference Sunday School Anniversary took place at 3 o'clock. Rev. E. B. Snyder, of Christ Church of Pittsburgh, Chairman of Conference Sunday School Committee, presided. Exercises opened with singing, and prayer by Rev. Dr. Nesbit. After some remarks by the Chairman, the Annual Report was read, from which we learn the following statistics: No. of schools, 495; officers and teachers, 6,585; scholars 41,212; volumes in libraries, 112,598; Bible classes, 724; Sunday School Advocates, (about 8,000); scholars in infant classes, 7,504; expenditures, $16,047.51; benevolent institutions, $721.50; conversions, 2,157; an increase in almost every item.

Brief and well-timed addresses were made by Prof. Loomis, of Wheeling; Rev. Dr. I. N. Baird, of Salem, O., and Rev. W. Lynch, of Allegheny, Pa., which were evidently well received by the large audience present. Immediately at the close of Bishop Lynch's address, the audience were dismissed with doxology and benediction by the venerable Father Boyd of Delaware, Ohio.

EVENING SERMON.

According to the appointment of the Committee on Worship, the Rev. J. R. Mills preaches in the M. E. Church this evening. While we write, this promising young minister, formerly a resident of Pittsburgh, is delivering the sermon in question to a crowded house, which speaks well for one who has been but a short time in the ministry.

MERE MENTION.

The Board of Stewards have had placed in their hands over seven thousand dollars for distribution among worn-out ministers, widows and orphans of deceased ministers. Rev. Dr. Baird, recently Presiding Elder of Allegheny District, by appointment at the last session of the Conference, will preach the Annual Missionary Sermon on Saturday afternoon, (to-morrow,) after which the Conference Missionary Society will hold its anniversary. Sunday afternoon, by appointment one year ago, Rev. Dr. Nesbit, editor of the Advocate delivers a sermon on the Centenary of Methodism. It is not likely the Conference will adjourn before Monday night. The Sabbath services promise to be an occasion of much interest.

A Burning Well Forty Years Ago.

A gentleman residing in Washington city, who has a penchant for old papers, recently made a discovery which will no doubt prove interesting to those who may wish to write a history of the oil discoveries of Western Pennsylvania. While searching through an old file of the National Intelligencer, his eyes fell upon the following paragraph:

"GREENSBURG, Jan. 24, 1826.

"On Friday morning, the 17th inst., while Messrs. John Klingensmith, Sr., Philip Klingensmith, and Nicholas Long were engaged in boring at the Salt Well, four miles north-west of this place, they were terribly burnt by the fluid which emanated from the well coming in contact with a small quantity of fire near the spot at the time. We have gathered the following particulars from one of the unfortunate men: The auger was at the depth of 400 feet, on a hard rock, when it suddenly gave way, and the water forced up by the gas was thrown upon the fire, and exploded similar to that of gunpowder. Philip was burnt the worst, being nearest the well at the time, and was unable to move until assisted by others. Their faces and arms were shockingly burnt, and but poor hopes were entertained of their recovery until Sunday, when the fire was extracted from the wounds and the pain in some measure ceased. The gas continued to burn until Monday last, and defied every effort to extinguish it until then. The auger was raised about 300 feet out of the well, and the little house which covered the works was burnt to ashes."

How strange it is that Petroleum made itself known to the people of Westmoreland county over forty years ago, and yet the men of that generation were too dull to "take the hint." But we suppose it was all the better "for us."

How a Thief Ran into the Clutches of the Law.

On Saturday, a detective from Erie, Mr. Kennedy, arrived in this city, in search of a man named Gilbert, who had stolen three hundred and fifty dollars from Mr. Hull, proprietor of a hotel at Warren, Pa. Soon after his arrival, a young man stepped into the Mayor's office and asked for the Mayor. On being informed that his Honor was not in, he inquired for the Chief of Police, not knowing that he was then addressing Chief Hague. The Chief informed him that he was that officer, when he introduced himself as Mr. Gilbert, a detective on the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad. Officer Hague at once informed him that Detective Kennedy, of Erie, was then in the office, and asked him to step in and see him. Gilbert changed color at this announcement, but he went into the room where officer Kennedy was seated, and shook hands with him. It turned out that Gilbert was the identical individual that Kennedy was looking for, and he was taken into custody and locked up. He was searched, but his finances had become reduced to the small sum of sixty cents. He had a pair of handcuffs in his possession, which will probably adorn his own wrists during his trip to Warren.

On Sunday Mr. Hull arrived here, and from him we learn that Mr. Gilbert had been employed as a detective on the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad, for the purpose of apprehending and bringing to justice certain parties who had been in the habit of stoning trains on that road. He finally succeeded in this undertaking, and was placed on the road as a regular detective. On Thursday night last he was at Warren, at the hotel of Mr. Hull, when a conductor on the road came in and deposited three hundred and fifty dollars with Mr. Hull for safe keeping. The money was locked up in a drawer, after which the landlord retired, with instructions to Gilbert to wake up the porter. Gilbert did as instructed, but not until he had secured a chisel, forced open the drawer, and secured the money. He then left, taking with him a girl named Jones, who, (he alleged) was an important witness in a case which he had on hands. He went to Williamsport, where he married the girl, remained with her over night, gave her a considerable sum of money, bought her some articles of clothing, abandoned her, and soon after took the cars for this city. How he fared here has already been stated. He will be taken back to-day.

To the Pittsburgh Gazette.

NOBLESTOWN, ALLEGHENY COUNTY, PA.,
March 10th, 1866.

Inclosed you will please find a blank petition "To the Congress of the United States," which you will please insert in your paper, and thus furnish your wool growing patrons with the form that is being very generally used throughout the United States. The President of the wool growing association is quite anxious that one, or more, energetic wool grower, in every township in the county, copy the petition, and procure all the names of all wool growers in the township, and forward the same, at the earliest possible day, to the member of Congress from his district.

GLENN & BROTHER.

To the Congress of the United States:

The undersigned inhabitants of —— County, State of —— believing that the present situation of our National finances requires an amount of revenue to be raised by duties on foreign imports which, if levied in proper proportions on the different articles of import, can be made to protect all branches of domestic industry requiring protection, without ultimate injury to any; and believing that under the present tariff the American Wool Grower has no adequate protection against the competition of the cheap labor and accumulated capital of other Countries—respectfully petition, that a duty of 10 cents per pound and 10 per cent. ad valorem be levied on all unwashed foreign wools competing with American wools, the value whereof at the last port of export, including charges in such port, shall be 32 cents or less per pound; and that a duty of 12 cents per pound and 10 per cent. ad valorem be levied on all like wools, the value whereof including charges in port shall exceed 32 cents per pound; and that the above rates of duties be doubled on washed wools, and trebled on scoured wools.

We also pray that the law be made to take effect from the time of its passage.

Fatal Accident on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad.

An accident, which proved fatal to a very estimable citizen of Allegheny, occurred on Friday evening, on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, where it crosses Robinson street, near the bridge. It appears that Mr. Benjamin McIntire, an employee on the road, visited the water box in the locality mentioned, and was walking along the trestle-work on his return home, when he observed a train approaching from the west, at the same time the three o'clock Express, bound west, was approaching from behind, and, as he stepped from one track to the other, the locomotive struck him, and he was thrown from the track to the ground below. The deceased was conveyed to a house in the neighborhood, where Dr. Irish visited him and pronounced his injuries necessarily fatal. The skull was fractured, and one of his wrists broken. He was taken to his residence, corner of Middle and North alley, in the second ward, where he subsequently expired. Coroner Clawson yesterday empanneled a jury, but in consequence of the absence of witnesses they adjourned to meet at the Mayor's office this evening at 7½ o'clock. The deceased was about fifty-three years of age, and leaves a wife and four children.

Pittsburgh Enterprise.

Pittsburgh, although slow to take hold of anything that they do not readily perceive there is money in, are nevertheless very rapid in putting ahead any project that they deem valuable. On Saturday, we were invited to look at the workings of a new Bolt machine, the invention of Mr. Edward Kaylor, foreman of the boring mill of the Fort Pitt Foundry. The machines are entirely new, and were then running for the first time, but it certainly surprised us to witness the rapidity with which they turned out bolts. There are several sets of dies to each machine, making square necks, with round counter-sink heads, and also heads of all varieties and shapes. The dies of the first machine work in and out by means of cams and springs, and the bolt head is forged in three strokes of the hammer, the rod having first been cut to the requisite length. When formed, a mandrill forces the bolt out from the socket, and another piece of prepared iron takes its place. In the second machine, the rod is cut into sizes and the head forged all at one blow, the process being similar to cutting nails. The first of these machines, which turns out the largest size bolts, will make thirty-five hundred in ten hours, while the second will turn out ten thousand in the same time. They have also a machine for making nuts out of a cold bar of iron, the nut being cut, and the hole punched all at one blow.

Mr. Kaylor soon found those who appreciated the invention sufficiently to invest money in it, and a building was erected on the corner of Morton and Butler streets, in the Ninth ward, and a company formed under the name of Kaylor, Shields & Co. The company added more machinery, such as screw cutters, lathes, planes and drills, and are now making preparations for putting up a building, which will cover an area of one hundred feet front by four hundred feet deep. Their present works, however, are well worth a visit from all who are interested in the manufacturing growth of this city.

Amusements.

THEATRE.—The first week of the engagement of Mr. Couldock was one of continued success and crowded houses. His "Old Phil's Birthday" is one of his most efficient pieces, and during its representation, the Theatre was crowded until there was not even standing room left. To-night Mr. and Miss Couldock commence their second week with the domestic drama of "Cricket on the Hearth."

OPERA HOUSE.—Miss Helen Western, the celebrated Protean actress, surnamed the "Magnificent," after having done a magnificent business during the past week at the Opera House and added new laurels to her already great name, has been re-engaged by the management, and to-night appears as Fabien and Louis dei Franchi in the great dramatic romance of the "Corsican Brothers." She also appears in the afterpiece of the "Pet of the Petticoats" as Paul, in which she will sing a number of songs.

MASONIC HALL.—To-morrow evening, Wood's famous band of Minstrels, from New York city, will open their entertainments at Masonic Hall, which will be continued three nights. An exchange who appears to know the troupe perfectly, says that "they have no superiors in their line of business."

Caution to Soldiers.

It is stated that a large number of flattering circulars and handbills are being circulated throughout the country, by Washington city agents, containing fair promises to procure bounty, land warrants, extra bounties, &c., for discharged soldiers, and for the heirs of deceased soldiers, and requesting discharges and claims to be sent to them. We would caution our readers to be careful in regard to this matter, and warn them, as no law has yet been passed by Congress, authorizing the granting of bounty land warrants, or the payment of additional bounties, that there may be some ulterior designs on the part of those so anxious to engage prematurely in the prosecution of such claims.

We have licensed claim agents in this city, who are known to be responsible and reliable men, and they have the same facility and quite as much ability as the agents at Washington, of whom we know nothing.

The Mercer County Tragedy.

We have already reported the mysterious and horrible murder of Ephraim Boger, of Greene township, Mercer county, and the arrest and subsequent discharge of Allen Billig, who was suspected of the crime. Three days after Billig's release he was re-arrested, and an examination into the facts leaves no doubt that he committed the murder. He was seen with Boger before the murder, and was seen leaving the vicinity of the spot where the body lay. The tracks to the place of the murder, and around the body, correspond with Billig's boots—certain nail marks rendering the identification certain. In addition to these facts, blood was found on Billig's clothing, a stick like Billig's was found bloody and broken beside the body, and a knife of the deceased was found in his possession. He was committed to jail for trial, and will no doubt be convicted of the murder.

The Connellsville Railroad.—Change of Schedule.

We direct the attention of the public to the card of W. B. Stout, Esq., Superintendent of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad, announcing a change of time in the running of the trains on this road, to take effect on and after Thursday, March 15th. The mail train will leave this city at seven o'clock in the morning, instead of as heretofore. A night train for McKeesport will leave this city at ten o'clock. The accommodation will leave West Newton at six o'clock in the morning, and returning will leave Pittsburgh at six-fifteen in the evening. The time of all other trains remains unchanged. Travelers and others will do well to bear this announcement in mind.

Great Ice Gorge in Red Bank Creek.

One of the greatest gorges of ice that has ever occurred in Red Bank creek, commenced forming in January, about three miles from the mouth, against an Island known as Willow Island, and now there are three successive breakups all run in and frozen together, making the ice from twenty-five to forty feet in depth, promiscuously mixed with timber, drift, etc. The ice is now all down from Brookville, and the gorge extends from eight to ten miles up from where it commenced. Red Bank creek has been very high for several days, and the ice has not moved. The presumption among the lumbermen is, that it will have to thaw out, and the probability is no lumber may be got out of the stream until late in the spring.

Sudden Death.—A man named Robert Wiggins, of Tell township, Huntingdon county, a weaver by trade, died very suddenly on Wednesday evening last. The deceased was in the enjoyment of his usual health, wove six yards of cloth during the day, ate a hearty supper, and sat down to enjoy his pipe. His wife had in the meantime gone to the cellar, and while there heard him fall, and hastening to his side found him a corpse.

Fire.—The alarm of fire last night, was occasioned by the partial burning of a building on Harrison street, near Penn, in the Fifth ward. The damage was very slight, and the flames were extinguished without the aid of the Fire Department, who were, however, promptly on the ground. We did not ascertain to whom the building belonged or how the fire originated.

The Liquor Licence Question.—The Committee appointed by the Temperance League, to consult in reference to the draft of a new license bill, will meet this (Monday) evening, in the Sixth Presbyterian Church, Franklin street. The Committee have had a conference with all the Judges of our Courts, and all parties have agreed upon a bill which will be reported at the meeting to-night and sent on to Harrisburg immediately.

Temperance Meeting.—A meeting of the Temperance League will be held this evening, at half past seven o'clock, in the Sixth Presbyterian Church, Franklin street, to consider finally the proposed amendments to the license law. Every friend of temperance is earnestly invited to be present.

Confessed.—Morgan, one of the men engaged in the highway robbery on last Friday evening, has made a clean breast of the affair, and acknowledged that both himself and Dean were participators in the outrage. Their chances for going over the river are very excellent.

On Again.—We noticed yesterday that the Manchester Passenger railway cars had resumed their Sunday trips, and were running as usual. We understand that the arrangement will be kept up, and that hereafter the cars will run Sunday as on any other day.

Dead.—Kate McCloskey, the girl who was so badly burned, a few days since, by the explosion of an oil lamp, while attempting to kindle a fire, died at six and a half o'clock last evening, at the residence of her mother.

Church Dedication.—The new Presbyterian Church in Johnstown, will be formally dedicated in April next. Dr. Howard, of the Second Presbyterian Church, of this city, will preach the dedicatory sermon.

Singular Accident.—A little son of John Brawley, Esq., of Hollidaysburg, was accidentally shot in the eye with an arrow by a companion, a few days ago, and it is thought the sight of the eye is entirely destroyed.

Eclipse.—There will be a total eclipse of the moon on the evening of March 30th, beginning at five minutes past nine o'clock, and visible throughout the United States.

Rain.—We were yesterday favored with rain, which continued with but few intermissions, the entire day. At a late hour last night the weather was still showery.

William Lockhart, an old citizen of Greenville, Mercer county, died suddenly on Thursday last, in the sixty-sixth year of his age.

FROM SATURDAY EVENING'S GAZETTE

Alleged Seduction.

Some days ago a charge of seduction was preferred against a German citizen of the Second ward, Allegheny, by a girl who had been in his employ as a domestic. The affair has been very closely kept, but it nevertheless created no little gossip among the friends of the accused, who is sixty-five years of age, and possessed of considerable means, while the girl is poor and apparently not over eighteen years of age. The old defense of "an attempt to extort money"—a defense invariably set up by wealthy men who are charged with offenses of this character—was urged in this case. The girl, however, whose character could not be successfully impeached, swore positively to the charge. It is alleged that a German butcher was offered a large sum of money if he would marry the girl, and assume the paternity of the child, but he declined the offer. He was then promised a house, and all expenses paid, so that he would have nothing to do but "walk about with his hands in his pocket," but this tempting proffer was also refused. The accused then proposed a compromise with the friends of the girl, and after several days' negotiations the case was finally compromised by the defendant paying to the girl the sum of $2,000.

The Prohibitory Liquor Law.

The announcement contained in our special advices from Harrisburg, to the effect that a bill had passed the Senate to prohibit entirely the sale of liquors in Allegheny county, has created no little excitement in the two cities, especially among tavern keepers. It seems that our Senators were divided on the subject, Senator Graham voting for, and Senator Bigham against it. The former gentleman has declared, both in the Senate Chamber and in the presence of his constituents at home, that he would gladly vote for a prohibitory law, if such a law could be passed, and his action is perfectly consistent. Senator Bigham is committed to the support of the bill to extend the main provisions of the Philadelphia act to this county, and hence his opposition to the prohibitory law. Truly, this vexed question of traffic in liquor is developing the extremes of legislation—one bill opening the door to all who wish to sell, and the other shutting the door against everybody! Would it not be wise to throw both these measures aside and let the present law remain in force.

Highway Robbery.

On Thursday, a man named John McElwee, a peddler hailing from Greensburg, came to this city to make some purchases, having in his possession some seven hundred dollars. Instead of attending to his business, he got on a spree, and fell among thieves. The parties, however, failed in getting a favorable opportunity to rob him that night, and on Friday he paid out some six hundred dollars. He was dogged about by the rascals, and in the afternoon was induced to visit a tavern, where he became quite drunk. He was then decoyed to the bluff under the Lower Basin, where he was robbed of his remaining funds, amounting to about one hundred dollars. He made information before the Mayor, and the police, from a description given of the parties, last night arrested four men named David Morgan, Michael Dean, D. F. Rigby, and A. Lawson. They had a hearing this morning, which resulted in Morgan and Dean being committed to jail to answer, while Rigby and Lawson were discharged.

The Religious Awakening.

We have heretofore had occasion to mention the interesting revival meetings held in many of the churches of this city and vicinity, and to note the marked degree of success which has resulted from them. From other parts of the country we have accounts of similar meetings, and the revival spirit seems to be rapidly spreading. The Meadville Republican says: "The religious revival in this city commenced during the first week of January, which is observed as a week of prayer by many of the churches, and has been going on with increasing interest ever since. It has been most active in the Methodist Episcopal, the Baptist, and the Presbyterian churches. The number of new members received in these congregations are about as follows:

Methodist Episcopal	189
Baptist	80
First Presbyterian	22
Second "	31

The total admitted in these churches is 322.

Another Market House Project.

The citizens of East Birmingham, having discussed the subject of the erection of a new market house, pro and con, for several months past, have finally concluded to settle the dispute by appealing to a direct vote of the people. At a meeting of the Borough Council, held on Thursday evening, a resolution was adopted authorizing a special ballot to be prepared "for" and "against" the proposed improvement—the ballot to be voted on Friday next, the 16th inst., being the day of the regular election. The friends of the measure assert that a market house would yield sufficient revenue to make it self-sustaining, and at the same time afford very desirable accommodations to the citizens. The opponents of the project argue that it would not pay, and entail unnecessary expense upon the citizens. The best way to find out is to try the experiment.

The Criminal Court.—There was no business of public interest transacted in this Court to-day, owing to the unavoidable absence of District Attorney Duff.

THE SIGNS OF THE TIMES.

In all the Municipal Elections that have been held at the North since the 22d of February, the Republicans have been more than usually successful, showing that the attempt to strengthen the democrats by drawing off the "conservative" element from the Republican party has not worked well enough to encourage those who instituted the experiment.

In Portland, Maine, for instance, the issue was made up very clearly. The democrats put themselves forward as the only friends of President JOHNSON. The result was that they were beaten by 737 majority—being more than 200 Republican gain over last year, and that, too, on a largely increased vote. At Waukegan, Wisconsin, too, the opposition headed their ticket as "the Administration" ticket, and were beaten out of sight by the Republican nominees. So in New York at the recent charter elections. Republican Mayors were chosen in Rochester, Utica, Oswego, Poughkeepsie, Auburn and Newburg, whilst the Democrats carry Troy only.

In all these cities the issue was fairly made up, the Republicans standing by their principles and the democrats flying the JOHNSON banner; and wherever the Republicans were the most Radical they were the most successful. Thus in Rochester the Republican City Convention put forward a strong Radical platform, and presented General GRANT as their candidate for the Presidency; and they elected their Mayor by 1062 majority—a gain from last year of 950!

NEW HAMPSHIRE is the first State to hold an election for Governor this year, and the prospects are of the most cheering kind. For a series of years the Republican State Committee have published in advance of the annual election their estimate of the number of votes to be cast, in figures, and have rarely, if ever, overrated the strength of their own party, and the Union majorities have usually been larger than thus claimed. The Committee's estimate of the Gubernatorial canvass next Tuesday week is as follows:

Frederick Smyth, R.	36,364
John G. Sinclair, D.	31,509
Doubtful	1,833

CONNECTICUT and RHODE ISLAND always follow the lead of New Hampshire, and we have no doubt they will elect the Republican State tickets by increased majorities. The New York World gives up New Hampshire, and it may as well give up the others, in advance. By the time the spring elections are over it will be found that the effort to break up the Republican party is a complete failure.

OUR CANDIDATE AND PLATFORM.

The nomination of General GEARY is received everywhere throughout the State with rare enthusiasm and cordiality. In all our experience of Pennsylvania politics we have never known a nomination that was hailed with such a general and genuine outburst of delight. In all quarters of the Commonwealth it is accepted as an assurance of success, and the party is thus enabled to enter the canvass at an early day, well-organized, united and confident. Outside of the State the Republican papers seem as much gratified as our own people do, regarding the presentation of so strong a candidate as one of those happy political hits which parties make only when they have all their wits about them.

The platform, too, is approved and endorsed with the same ardor that greeted it when it was read in the Convention. In former years Pennsylvania has been regarded as being rather behindhand in the matter of platforms, her politicians seeking rather to deal in glittering generalities than in specific committals to a definite policy. If any State, therefore, could reasonably have been suspected of a leaning to "Conservatism," it was Pennsylvania. She has, however, spoken out plainly, definitely and decisively; and our friends in other States as well as in Congress, feel rejoiced to know that her voice is unmistakably for the right. There has been, consequently, a very general stiffening of backbones, and the Republicans of the country feel as men do who have had a heavy load removed from their shoulders.

Gen. GEARY thus enters upon his new campaign under the most encouraging auspices. The flag of the "White Star" Corps is unfurled; the ranks formed in compact array; and the inspiriting bugle blast has sounded the call to move forward. Under his lead its march will be as irresistible as was the host that moved forward from Atlanta to the sea; and as that march ended in making him Governor of Savannah, this one will end in making him Governor of Pennsylvania.

Let no one imagine, however, that the march will be an easy one. It will be triumphant; but only through discipline and labor. The unity of spirit and compactness of organization with which the beginning of the campaign has been signalized will carry us throgh, and nothing else.

GEN. BURNSIDE'S REPORT.

The Eastern papers contain the report of Gen. BURNSIDE, of his operations in command of the Army of the Potomac in 1862 and 1863, including the defeat at Fredericksburg. The report, which is dated in November last, bears with some severity upon Gen. HALLECK, to whose delay in sending forward the pontoon train, which was essential in crossing the Rappahannock, the whole blame of the disasters that followed at Fredericksburg, is attributable. If that train had been at Falmouth as soon as BURNSIDE's army reached there, the whole army could have crossed and occupied the heights of Fredericksburg without loss; but having been kept back, through HALLECK's agency, the crossing was prevented until LEE had time to come up. Thus the golden opportunity was lost, and the disastrous campaigns of BURNSIDE and HOOKER followed.

WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON COLLEGE.

In common with the other friends of Washington and Jefferson College, we are pleased to learn that the Trustees, on the 6th inst., unanimously elected the Rev. Dr. JONATHAN EDWARDS, of Philadelphia, to the Presidency of the consolidated college. His inauguration will take place at Washington, on Wednesday, April 4th next, at two o'clock, with appropriate ceremonies and addresses, when it is hoped that as many as possible of the Alumni of the two old Colleges and other friends of the institution as at present constituted, will be present.

INDIANA.—The editor of the Ohio State Journal has recently visited Indiana, and says there is a universal determination among the influential leaders as well as the mass of the party, to sustain Congress. The most active men in support of the platform adopted at the late State Convention are the war democrats, able leaders of their former party, who left it for their own and their country's good, when it sold itself to the rebel army.

A TRUE DEMOCRAT.

The opponents of General GEARY are trying to manufacture some capital out of a letter written by that gentleman to a friend in Philadelphia in August last, declining the offer of a democratic nomination for Governor, on account of a sense of unfitness for the office and inability to meet the expense, in which the General says:

> "I have been a life-long democrat, and I am still a democrat in the truest and most ample construction of the word and meaning of the term, without any prefix or affix whatever, maintaining all the immutable truths which underlie the superstructure of our form of Government, in all their length and breadth, heighth and depth—not as mere abstractions, but as active and positive vitalities, invigorated by the greatest intensity of patriotism."

As to the General's modesty in declaring his unfitness, we take it that he is more to be commended for thus depreciating his own merits than he would have been if he had indulged in self-praise. Many a man has held himself unfit for public place who has possessed the most abundant qualification for it; and the people of Pennsylvania will not condemn him for obeying the Apostolic injunction not to think too highly of himself.

As to the extract above quoted there is nothing in it with which a Republican can find fault. He says he is still "a Democrat in the truest and most ample construction of the word and meaning of the term," and there is not a Republican in the country that cannot say the same thing. The true Democrats, in fact—the men who believe in the government of the people, which is Democracy pure and simple—are to be found only in the ranks of the Republican party. The men who call themselves Democrats have nothing of real, true, genuine Democracy about them but the name. They adhere to the aristocracy of slavery, to class legislation, to the oppression of the laborer, and to the rule of the oligarch. To call such men "Democrats" is to abuse a sacred name and pervert it to the opposite of its true meaning. The true Democrats are they who believe in carrying the theory of Democracy into practice, and General GEARY having left the party that is false to its professions and joined the only party that is in favor of carrying on the government upon genuine Democratic principles may well say that he is "still a Democrat in the truest and most ample construction of the word and meaning of the term."

VETO OF THE RAILROAD SWINDLE.

We learn by telegraph that the Governor on Saturday vetoed the infamous bill conferring the most unheard of privileges upon the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad, to which we have referred heretofore. This bill was the most disgraceful that ever passed the Pennsylvania Legislature, and that is saying a great deal; and the Governor deserves the hearty thanks of every friend of the Commonwealth for having squelched it. We are glad to know that the Governor has a keener regard for the good name of the State than those who voted for this bill in the Legislature seem to have had.

THE difference between the Republican and Democratic parties in Pennsylvania is nowhere better displayed than in the treatment accorded to the Soldier by the State Conventions of the two. The Republican Convention nominates a gallant soldier who served throughout the war; the Democratic Convention nominates a Copperhead, without alloy, who voted as a member of the State Senate against every measure intended to benefit the soldier. The Republican platform, too, demands an equalization of bounties, the meting out of ample justice to the brave defenders of the nation, and a liberal provision for the education and comfort of the orphans of those who fell in defence of their country; while the Democratic platform indulges only in buncombe talk, carefully avoiding all mention of specific measures in behalf of our returned braves.

PENNSYLVANIA ON THE ISSUE.—The fact that the Union members of the Pennsylvania Legislature had endorsed the action of Congress on the reconstruction question, shortly after the 22d of February, was mentioned in our Congressional dispatches at the time; but the proceedings were kept private. There is good reason, however, to believe that a resolution similar in form to the following was agreed upon:

> "Resolved, That the action of the majority of both Houses of Congress, in their patriotic efforts to reconstruct the Union on the basis of justice, humanity and equality before the law, of all classes of citizens, entitle them to the admiration and respect of all loyal people, and we hereby pledge them our firm and cordial support."

THE ALEXANDRIA ELECTION.—At the recent election in Alexandria, Virginia—a city that was within the Union lines during the whole war—the rebels carried everything. The Virginia State Journal, of Wednesday evening, has the following:

> "At least seven of the successful candidates have been in the South during the rebellion, and a majority of these served in the ranks of the rebel army, and it is a noteworthy fact that while some of the "reconstructed" voters were challenged, they were without a single exception allowed to vote."

This shows that the rebel spirit is as active as ever in that part of Virginia.

MR. CLYMER, in his speech accepting the democratic nomination, expressed his willingness to sacrifice his life, "if need be," in "defending the Union." He is very liberal with the offer of his life, after the war. While the war was in progress he was not as liberal even as Artemus Ward, who was ready to sacrifice the last relation he had upon the altar of his country, but did what he could to obstruct its prosecution by keeping every man he could out of the army. His bravery now, when the danger is over, is of a very cheap kind.

REBELLION LOOKING UP.—The telegraph informed us, on Friday, that the Democratic Convention at New Orleans had nominated JOHN T. MONROE as their candidate for Mayor. When Gen. BUTLER took New Orleans, this man occupied that office, as he will again after the next election. He was imprisoned for nearly two years, because of his rebelliousness and his refusal to take the oath of allegiance; and he is now put in nomination and will be elected, solely because he is a traitor at heart, unchanged and unchangeable.

GET OFF THE PLATFORM.—The Democratic platform was written by BENTON KERR, and this fact was alluded to by Mr. CESSNA in his speech at the Republican Convention in a way that seems to have stirred up BENTON's wrath. He said that according to railroad rules "it is always dangerous to ride on the platform of the Kerr;" and that it was probably its slipperiness that compelled them to put a climber (Clymer) on it.

GEN. MEADE.—In giving the current rumors that Gen. MEADE was offered a leave of absence for three years if he would accept the Democratic nomination for Governor, it is due to that gentleman to add what has been withheld of the original story, to wit: That when the offer was made the General interposed two objections—first, that his acceptance would be illegal, and second, that he did not train with that crowd.

A SLIGHT MISTAKE.—The New York Tribune quotes the fifth and sixth resolutions of our State platform and says they were adopted by a vote of 109 to 21. It is mistaken. The fourth resolution, which refers to the President, was adopted by that vote; but the others were carried unanimously and with loud and oft repeated hurrahs.

THE Washington correspondent of the Chicago Journal mentions a report, in general circulation, that the President has apologized, or made the amende honorable to Messrs. SUMNER and STEVENS.

GENERAL NEWS.

HON. CORNELIUS COLE, the Senator elect from California, has delivered a public address at San Francisco on the present political issues of the country. He said that recent events had made it uncertain whether the Confederates had lost anything in the late struggle or not. There was no necessity for reconstruction, and he was certainly opposed to restoring the leaders to political power.

THE Columbus (Ohio) Journal says that of the two hundred and sixteen state flags presented to the Ohio State volunteers previous to their marching to the front, all will be returned except four lost in battle. Many of them are mere threads—tattered and torn into ribbons. When all the regiments have returned, these colors will be presented to the State with appropriate ceremonies.

THE freedmen's bureau is informed that a gang of Southern regulators have threatened the life of one of the teachers of the bureau, engaged in prosecuting his duties at Appomattox Court-house, Virginia. It is presumed that the only reason assigned for this threat is the fact that he is a Northern Abolitionist.

THE cattle plague having shortened the supply of meat in the English markets, poultry becomes a staple article of food. In order to furnish a better quality and larger stocks, the agricultural societies are increasing the displays of fowls at their exhibitions, and announcing larger premiums for the best.

THE Memphis Post relates that when the intelligence of the veto reached that city, a Northern capitalist who was there making arrangements for investing some twenty-five or thirty thousand dollars in cotton-planting in that vicinity, withdrew it, and took a steamer for home, concluding that his money would be safer if invested further North.

CERTAIN religious fraternities in Italy, foreseeing their speedy dissolution, have tried to contract new debts upon their present possessions, and in some cases have sold part of their property. The Minister of Justice has therefore issued a decree declaring all such debts and sales illegal, and their contractors liable to punishment.

STRENGTH OF THE WAVES.—On February 11th there was a severe storm at Cherbourg, France, during which 200 large blocks of stone, placed on the breakwater, were washed into the harbor by the waves. Forty cannon planted on the pier were thrown into the sea. So great a storm had never visited that region before.

LIQUOR SALES IN WASHINGTON.—Official records show that there are in Washington sixty wholesale liquor stores and seventeen hundred licensed retailers who sell eleven million dollars' worth on week days, and pay a license of $75,000 to the United States and about the same amount to the city.

THE ice break last week in the Des Moines has proved very disastrous. At Croton, a large mill was swept away, more than half the houses destroyed, and many of the inhabitants barely escaped with their lives. Great damage was also done at Bonaparte. At last accounts, the river at Croton was subsiding, but there was much reason to apprehend another rise.

JOHN SNEED, one of the reconstructed under "my policy," publishes a card in the Nashville Banner, denunciatory of the postmaster in that city, for distributing Major Stearns's radical paper, "The Right Way." This looks like the return of "the good old times."

THE merchants of Baltimore now sell "confederate gray cloth," in large quantities, it being the only goods which the young rebels of that city will use for clothing.

OUT of the original issue of $60,000,000 in notes receivable in payment of customs, better known as the demand notes, but $300,000 are outstanding, the remainder having been redeemed and cancelled.

SNOWDROPS and primroses have made their appearance in some parts of Dorsetshire, England, earlier this year than has been known for many years.

THE news of the President's veto arrested a contemplated immigration to Mexico of ex-rebels from New Orleans.

BOTH the father and the mother of the wife of Gov. Fenton, of New York, died on Saturday, aged 80 years.

GEN. G. H. CROSMAN has been ordered back to his old position as chief quartermaster at Philadelphia.

THE Scioto Gazette reports a robbery of the Ross county treasury, and a subsequent discovery of a large deficit in the county funds. The office was entered by two men on Tuesday evening of last week from the front door, they using a key stolen from the residence of Mr. Rittenhouse, the Treasurer. The outer door of the safe was found open and $400 in money reported abstracted. Mr. Rittenhouse immediately made an examination of the funds in the vault and reported at once to the Commissioners a deficiency. Investigation shows this to amount to about $39,000. Mr Rittenhouse made an assignment of his property to his securities, and arrangements were made to pay into the treasury the entire amount of deficiency. There is a mystery connected with the affair and considerable excitement among the people.

THE Chicago Republican tells a singular story, to the effect, that when Gov. Oglesby, of Illinois, was in New York recently soliciting funds for the Lincoln Monument, he was promised $100,000 in contributions from Thurlow Weed and his set, if he would address the meeting in that city on February 22d, in support of the President's veto. The Governor declined the honor, and didn't get the $100,000 which had been promised him on a previous visit without any conditions whatever. This is a bold performance. Buying up a Governor is a big job even in these days of large contracts. Was the money to come from the secret service fund?

INSURANCE.

LIFE INSURANCE! LIFE INSURANCE!—The NEW JERSEY MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO. OF NEWARK, N. J., desires to call the attention of citizens of Pittsburgh to this subject, through their General Agent for the West, JAMES HUBBARD, at Monongahela House, Pittsburgh.

P. S.—One NEW feature in Life Assurance is that ALL OUR POLICIES are NON-forfeiting: for instance, if the party becomes unable to meet his annual payments he will NOT forfeit his policy, but the amount of insurance will be diminished by a sum equivalent to the premium so unpaid, thereby removing the ONLY valid objection that can be made against Life Insurance. Books, pamphlets, &c., can be had of SEWING MACHINES.

THE RECENT IMPROVEMENTS that have been added to the

WHEELER & WILSON

MACHINE

Have greatly increased its value, still the price remains the same, and but little in advance of other and comparatively inferior machines. Many have purchased other machines simply because they could be obtained at a little less price, when they would accomplish but half the amount of work, and have invariably regretted afterwards that they did not obtain THE BEST.

Since the modern improvements have been added to this machine, it has become unnecessary to prepare the work at all by basting, so that the entire sewing of an ordinary garment is performed without basting, which is a very great additional saving of labor.

Below we give a table made up from actual experiments showing the relative time occupied in making garments by this machine and also by hand.

XXXIXth CONGRESS--FIRST SESSION

WASHINGTON, March 9, 1866.

HOUSE.

Mr. Morrill, of Vermont, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported back the Senate amendment to the House bill, to declare the meaning of certain parts of the Internal Revenue act, of June 3d, 1864; the amendment which was to substitute the words "wherever" for "whenever," was concurred in.

Mr. Farnsworth, of Illinois, on leave, introduced a bill concerning the statements of accounts of army paymasters, which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

A vote was taken on the motion to recommit the bill to the Judiciary Committee, which Mr. Wilson desired to withdraw but could not, the previous question having been seconded. The bill was recommitted—yeas 82, nays 70.

Mr. Raymond asked Mr. Morrill whether the Committee on Ways and Means were ready to speak on the subject of internal revenue taxation.

Mr. Morrill replied that that Committee did expect to make an early report, embracing the subject of a tax on cotton, and a tax on income, with various reductions. They had hoped to report ere this.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the reciprocity bill.

The House then took up the Senate bill to protect all persons in their civil rights, on which the main question was ordered yesterday. Mr. Wilson, having the right to close the debate, yielded half his hour to Mr. Bigham, who spoke against the bill as being, in some of its provisions, unconstitutional.

Mr. Shellabarger spoke five minutes in support of the bill, and Mr. Wilson followed in a closing speech.

Mr. Eldridge moved to lay the whole subject on the table, which was lost; yeas, 32; nays, 118. No Republican voted in the affirmative. The vote was next taken on Mr. Bigham's amendment, and it was rejected; yeas, 37; nays, 114.

Mr. Stevens asked consent to offer a resolution to be referred to the Committee on Printing, to print 10,000 copies of the evidence taken by the Committee on Reconstruction.

Mr. Le Blond objected.

The House, on motion of Mr. Morrill, went into a Committee of the Whole, Mr. Raymond in the chair, and returned to the consideration of the bill regulating trade with the British possessions, on which the House had ordered a general debate to terminate in twenty minutes.

The general debate having closed, Mr. Morrill, of Vermont, offered several verbal amendments to the bill which were regarded as the original text. After considerable discussion an amendment was adopted increasing the rate of duty on fish as follows: Salmon, $2 per bbl.; shad, $1.50; mackerel, $1 when valued at $6 per bbl., and $2 when valued higher; herring, pickled or salt, $1 per bbl; all other pickled fish $1 per bbl. All fish not otherwise provided for 1c per pound.

Mr. Francis Thomas moved to amend by striking out all in relation to coal, leaving that matter to be governed by the general tariff law.

Mr. Stevens—I move to amend by making the tax on bituminous coal one dollar and twenty-five cents instead of fifty cents per ton. I object to the whole bill on general principles, and therefore I move this amendment to be made so as to conform with the general tariff. I object to special legislation for special countries or special classes. I think it introducing a most vicious system.

The Committee then closed, and it was agreed that to-morrow the House shall sit as in Committee on the Whole for a general debate on the President's message.

Mr. Stevens gave notice that after this week he would ask to have evening sessions.

SENATE.

Petitions were introduced in favor of increasing the pay of army officers.

Mr. Conness called up a bill to extend the time for the withdrawal of goods from public stores and bonded warehouses, on which there was a motion pending to reconsider the vote by which it passed.

The chair announced that the morning hour had expired, and the bill under consideration, was made a special order for Monday.

At 12 o'clock the Constitutional Amendment on the subject of representation, was then taken up. Mr. Fessendon spoke at length in its favor.

Mr. Wilson made a few remarks, when the question was stated to be on Henderson's amendment to substitute for the pending amendment, the following words: No state in presenting the qualifications requisite for elections therein, shall discriminate against any person on account of race or color. It was rejected. Yeas 15, nays 37.

The joint resolution hereafter offered by Mr. Sumner as a substitute for the proposition of the committee, was rejected.

Mr. Yates offered the following as a substitute for the Committee's proposition: That no State or Territory of the United States shall, by any constitution, law, or other regulation whatever, heretofore in force or hereafter to be accepted, making or enforcing in any way, or in any manner recognizing any distinction between citizens of the United States or any State or Territory, on account of race, color or previous condition of slavery, and hereafter all citizens, without distinction of race or color, shall be protected in the full enjoyment and exercise of all their civil and political rights, including the right of suffrage.

Mr. Clark moved to amend the above by adding the following: Provided that whenever the elective franchise shall be abridged in any State, or the election of Representatives to Congress or other officers, State or National, on account of race, color, descent or previous condition of servitude, or by any provision of law not equally applicable to all races, all persons of such race, color, descent or condition shall be excluded from the basis of representation, as prescribed in the second section of the Constitution. Mr. Clark's amendment was adopted. Yeas, 26; nays, 20.

Mr. Yates' amendment was rejected. Nays, 38; yeas, 7.

Mr. Davis offered an amendment to have the proposition of the Committee submitted to the Legislatures of the several States, next hereafter to be chosen. Rejected. Nays, 31; yeas, 12.

Mr. Sumner moved to amend the Committee's proposition, by inserting a proviso that there shall be no denial of the elective franchise on account of color. Rejected. Yeas, 8; nays 38.

Mr. Sumner moved to amend the proposition of the Committee by inserting that all persons denied representation shall be exempt from taxation of all kinds. Rejected.

The question was then taken on the proposition of the Committee, Mr. Clark having withdrawn his amendment, and the joint resolution as it came from the House was lost, there not being the requisite two-third vote in favor of it. The votes were; yeas, 22; nays, 25. The Chair announced that the joint resolution having received less than two-thirds of the votes, had failed.

Mr. Henderson moved a reconsideration of the vote, which prevailed.

This brought the joint resolution again before the Senate, and Mr. Doolittle offered the following amendment: That the following articles be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States as amendments to the Constitution, which when ratified by three-fourths of the Legislatures shall be valid as part of the said Constitution. After the census to be taken in 1870, and each succeeding census, representatives shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included in this Union, according to the number of male electors over 21 years, qualified by the laws thereof, to choose members of the most numerous branches of its legislature, and direct that taxes shall be apportioned among the several States according to the value of the real and taxable property situated in each State, not belonging to them. Further consideration was postponed till next Thursday.

Adjourned till Monday.

The Texas Convention—The Markets—Sanitary Measures.

NEW ORLEANS, March 9.—Galveston March 9.—The census of the inhabitants of Texas is to be taken every ten years, dating from February 8th, 1860.

A motion to make citizens of white inhabitants the basis of representation was laid on the table.

A motion to strike out the word white was lost, 26 to 47.

A motion to leave it optional with the legislature to add other inhabitants of the State to the basis of representation was lost, 25 to 38.

The Judiciary Committee reported in favor of making the Supreme Court consist of one Chief Justice and four Associates, to hold office ten years, at an annual salary of $4,500, District Judge an annual salary of $3,500, and Attorney General $3,000.

A proposition was made to confer on the Legislature the power to divide Texas into two States, one State to lie between Trinity and Red Rivers, which was referred to a Special Committee.

The ordinance annulling the ordinance of secession, is still under discussion.

New York advices have caused a decline of ten per cent. in boots and shoes and in domestic goods of fifteen per cent. The market is dull; no sale for bagging; cotton dull.

The latest reports from the plantations are very favorable. General Wright, Medical Inspector, has determined on vigorous sanitary measures as a precaution against cholera.

Fenian Meetings.

BOSTON, March 9.—A grand Fenian demonstration was held in Music Hall last evening. The capacious edifice was crowded to its utmost capacity, and thousands were turned away, being unable to obtain entrance. Addresses were made by Mr. O'Mahoney and Captain McCafferty, the military envoy from Ireland, Haggerty, of New York, P. A. Minot, C. C., J. F. Fitzgerald, central organizer, and others. A series of resolutions were presented by J. McDermot, of New York, which were unanimously adopted. Great enthusiasm was manifested throughout the evening, and at its close a large amount of Fenian bonds were disposed of.

NEW YORK, March 10.—There was an immense Fenian meeting at Cooper Institute last evening. Stirring speeches were made by Messrs. Rafferty, Mooney, Collins, Train and others. The Fenian excitement shows no abatement this morning.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

AYER'S AGUE CURE, for the speedy cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arises from its irritation. In malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S SON & CO., and by all Druggists. ja16:2m&wF

RETROUVEY'S TURKISH BANDOLENIAN HAIR TONIC. THE DRESSING AND RESTORER OF THE AGE TURKISH BANDOLENIAN.

BETROUVEY'S TURKISH BANDOLENIAN. What can be more acceptable than anything that will beautify? that will restore nature's decay by stopping the hair from falling out, restoring its natural color, making it to grow in luxuriance and beauty, assist in putting it up according to the present style and fashion and keep it in place? This Betrouvey's Turkish Bandolenian Hair Tonic will do, and for proof we refer you to any person who has tried it. It is acknowledged to be the beautifier of the age, the only Hair Tonic and Restorer worthy of the name. In Turkey, in France, in England, in America—everywhere where the "Bandolenian" is known—it is pronounced the ne plus ultra of Hair Preparations. Remember, it is free from all metallic poisons that are contained in most Hair Colors and dressings. It is the extract of many flowers and herbs, beautifully put up, an ornament to the toilet.

Photographs from Ambrotypes.

If we except the printing press, no branch of the arts or sciences has made such rapid strides in improvement and perfection as the Daguerrean art. Twenty years ago dark and dingy pictures were taken, requiring the "sitter" to remain so long in the chair, trying to hold his eyes open, that the picture looked as though he had lost a dear friend. But the art has been brought to such perfection that to-day a life-like photograph may be taken in a few seconds. Nor is this all. Ambrotypes are reproduced as photographs in all their original beauty, as an evidence of which we were shown a number taken from the Ambrotype of a little girl three years old. The original was taken by Captain Rogers, late of the Western gunboat fleet, seven years since, and reproduced by Mr. Whitehead, whose establishment is over the Chronicle building. As specimens of art they seem really beautiful.

Oil News.—The Erie Dispatch says that the Pritchard well, No. 1, West Pithole, belonging to the National Oil Company, commenced pumping on the evening of the 4th inst., and was yielding at the rate of 200 barrels per day when the sucker rods broke and operations stopped.

Frank Wheeler was born to be great. The well bearing his name, in which he has an interest, on the Sumner & Pratt purchase, Pithole, is yielding oil handsomely. "Better be born lucky than rich."

The "Phil Sheridan" well, Bennehoff Run, we are informed, has increased to 940 barrels a day, by actual measurement. It is constantly on the increase.

Another well on the same lease is producing 100 barrels per day.

A Fish in an Oil Well.—The Pithole Record says that on Saturday as parties were sand-pumping a well on lease 66, Holmden farm, a live fish was brought to the surface, from the depth of six hundred and sixteen feet. It had no eyes, was of a brown color, and some four inches long. Though put in water, it lived but a few hours. It is now on exhibition and rivals in attraction the surface wells.

Runaway—Firemen Injured.—The team attached to the Stewart Hook and Ladder Truck, ran away last night, during the alarm of fire in Allegheny. Three members of the Company, Messrs. Joseph Busha, James Kemp and Wm. J. Kennedy, were knocked down and somewhat injured by the team. Mr. Busha's injuries are said to be quite painful.

Scandalous.—A German baker, doing business in Allegheny, was recently caught in flagrante with the wife of an acquaintance, by the husband, who happened to come home at a time when he was not expected. An information was made, but subsequently withdrawn—the husband intending to sue for a divorce.

Malicious Mischief.—A boy named Troat was arrested by officer Nixon, of Allegheny, yesterday, charged with maliciously breaking the windows of Mr. Shaffer, of the Fourth ward. He was held for a hearing.

Fire.—The alarm of fire, raised about noon to-day, was occasioned by burning soot in a chimney in "Hardscrabble." The steamers were out, but their services were not needed.

Sunday Liquor Selling.—Patrick Mullen was fined $50 and costs, by the Mayor, for selling liquor on Sunday. He paid over the amount with costs, and was discharged.

It is expected that the Warren & Franklin railroad will be completed and ready for opening by the 1st of July at the farthest.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

SATURDAY, March 10, 1866.

The week closed on an unsteady market for stocks of all descriptions. Gold, which on Monday last stood at about 135, with varying fortune throughout the week, closed at 129¾@130, which is nearly the quotations current for a week subsequent to the surrender of Lee's army. How much lower it will fall before touching "hard pan" it is not easy to determine. Guessers are generally predicting an advance again to 135@137 within the next thirty days, founding their figures upon the immense importations now coming upon the market in New York. While it is true, as appears that our importations are frightfully large; much greater than ever before during the same space of time, it is to be remembered that we are paying for them in promises, not in hard coin. To be sure, the pay-day will come some time, and to the last farthing we will be expected to redeem these promises in specie, the universal exchange, but when that hour comes we will be ready to pay. For the present, in spite of the large national indebtedness represented by bonds and certificates, and the debts the people are foolishly contracting through these importations, in spite, too, of the lengthy financial tirades of the London Times, and its imitators, cautioning their readers against American securities, our bonds are rising steadily in that market. The London Times thunders loudly, other papers follow after their fashion, the Bank of England raises the rates of discount from 5 to 9 per cent—it does not avail. Five twenties are buoyant, and gold drops from day to day. Thus while the purchasing power of gold lessens daily, Governments maintain or advance in quotations, and the fear of our bonds bought with gold at 170 coming back now to get gold at 130, disappears. The holders want gold at par, and when that time comes they will judge "no other nation is so safe a debtor, we will hold the bonds so long as America will permit us," and America, affluent in wealth of every description, the centre of finance and trade, will soon draw both bonds and bondholders to her shores.

The home market has been by no means brisk throughout the week. Seven Thirties were pressed on the market at New York quotations, 99@99¼, and but little doing in Five Twenties. The market tightened up considerably for borrowers, and brought out more than the usual quantity of bank shares, causing a decline in most of them. Exchange was offered Saturday evening at 66, without finding buyers. Citizens can be bought at 60¼. Bank of Commerce at 108. Tradesman's heavy at 111@112. Third National quiet at 124. German National, last sales 163, but little changing hands. Fourth National 112 bid, 114 asked, sales might be made probably at 113. Insurance stocks without quotations—no transactions reach us this week. Railway shares, nothing doing. Connellsville bonds 79 bid, 81 asked. Columbia oil, weak at 22—small lots changing hands at 22@22¼. It will cause but little surprise now should it touch 20, crude oil is so low, and the prospect for an advance so forbidding.

—We take the following from the Philadelphia Ledger, of Saturday:

The uncertain condition of the public finances has its effect on every department of traffic and industry. The prices of grain and produce are gradually falling, though they are still high. All agricultural staples tend downward, and, if continued, rates of transportation must follow. Reports from the cotton regions indicate greater supplies than was supposed, and some little activity in the shipments. Prices rule low, and will justify large outlays the present season in putting in another crop. This is the great hope for Southern resuscitation, and all present appearances favor the happy result. Sales at Liverpool at latest dates were reported somewhat brisk, and the prices remain firm—all which has an encouraging aspect for the cotton producers of this country. Cotton receipts at the ports of the United States since September 1 are placed at 1,179,000 bales; exported, 610,000 bales—leaving on hand 573,000 bales; if the account is correct. The iron interest is somewhat depressed, though gradually reviving. About thirty of the bar and nail iron manufactories of Pittsburgh that stopped work recently, owing to an unwillingness on the part of the operatives to submit to a reduction of wages, are again in operation, the employers having yielded. The prospect at present is not good for great activity in this branch of industry. Coal also has felt the influence of the times, and last sales in New York exhibit an average decline of about two dollars per ton. While this will be hailed with joy by the consumer, it indicates that the profits of the traders will be seriously diminished.

—The New York Tribune, of March 10, says: The receipts from internal taxation continue upon a scale so large that it is seriously debated whether large reductions in the taxes should at not once be made, as suggested by Revenue Commission. The absurdity of attempting to pay the National debt off in twenty years, or to reduce "the blessing" to $2,000,000,000 is exploded, and people are coming to the conclusion that the war being ended, war taxes should cease with their cause, and the labor of the country be released from onerous burdens. The experience of every business man and of every voter daily makes it more apparent that for some time the payment of private debts and the adjustment of private losses will give them employment enough, without calling for heavy taxes to pay off large amounts of the National debt. What the country needs is a reduction of taxation to a point where the interest of the National debt will be collected, the ordinary expenses of the Government provided for, and a surplus secured with which to reduce the principal of the National debt. If the taxes were thus reduced, the business of the country would soon recover from the derangement caused by the Rebellion, and yield a revenue which would oblige Congress at very short intervals to reduce the taxes so as to keep the receipts down to the interest, the ordinary expenses, and an annual surplus of $50,000,000. Under the spur of the Rebellion taxation in any form was cheerfully met, but that state of public opinion has changed, and people when they pay ask the very natural question, whether the taxes are all necessary, whether they are levied equitably, and honestly expended. All business halts until Congress acts upon the Loan and Revenue bills, and they cannot be arranged too soon.

—The news from Europe, of which we have one week's later dates, continues favorable. The reduction of the rate of interest by the Bank of England, and the low rate of money at Frankfort—4@4½ per cent—tends very directly to improve American securities, which are quoted up to 69¼@69½ in the London market—the highest price since our war debt was organized. One year has made great changes for the better in United States stocks, and instead of being held in Europe for their merits for income, they are now recognized as valuable on the ground of security for the principal. In one year gold has fallen from 197 to 132 or $65 of currency upon $100 of gold, while the 5-20s have only fallen from 110½ currency to 103½, or 7 per cent, and this too in the face of an increase of $344,304,927 in the National debt.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, March 10, 1866.

CRUDE—The market for Crude was more active to-day than during any day this week, the transactions in the aggregate being unusually large, and while there was apparently a little better feeling, there is no improvement to note in prices, and we continue to give 15, bbls returned, and 20, bbls included, as the ruling quotations for good merchantable oil. We have sales reported to-day of 2000 bbls to arrive, for April delivery, at 15; 2000 do to arrive, at 15; 2250, part to arrive, at 15; 200 on the spot, at 15; 250 do at 15; 500 at 15; 500 at 15; and 400 at 15. It was rumored that sales had been made at 14, bbls returned, and 19, bbls included, but as we were unable to trace the rumors to any reliable source, we cannot, as a matter of course, vouch for their correctness.

REFINED—Bonded oil continues dull and weak, and, judging from the figures offered to-day, both for present and future delivery, buyers are a little weak in the knees, as they do not seem disposed to operate unless at a decline. We have but one sale reported, 1000 bbls, for latter part of May delivery in Philadelphia, seller's option, at 44. On Friday sales were made for May at 45, and less than a week 47 was freely offered, and then but few sellers could be found at that figure. Free Oil is dull and entirely nominal—small sales in a jobbing way at 56@57, for good standard brands.

NAPTHA AND RESIDUUM—There is no improvement to note in the demand for Residuum, and in the absence of sales, we continue to quote at $4@4½ per bbl. Naptha dull and nominally unchanged—Sale on Friday (60 to 63 gravity) at 14 cents, in bond.

Special Dispatch to the Western Press.

NEW YORK, March 10, 1866.

Petroleum stock market steady this afternoon, and Bennehoff rallied to 16 on the report that the injunction had been removed. Excelsior and Oil Creek were higher and in demand. Gold stocks were firmer, and changes were nearly all for the better. Excelsior 140; Oil Creek 240; Pit Hole Creek 610.

New Orleans Market.

NEW ORLEANS, March 11.—Cotton lower; sales of 1,600 bales; receipts, to-day, 1,300 bales. Low middling is quoted at 39@40c. Molasses, 90@92c. Sugar unchanged. Sterling Exchange, 138½. Gold, 128. New York Checks from par to ¼ premium.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, March 10, 1866.

The produce markets continue exceedingly dull and depressed, and what is worse still, there are no prospects at present of any immediate improvement. Gold has steadily declined for the last three or four days, touching 129¾ to-day, and this has a tendency to create dullness and stagnation, and restrict the demand for produce generally to supplying the immediate wants of the local trade, there being an entire absence of anything like a speculative feeling.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and dull but unchanged—sale of 200 bush common White at $2. Oats a shade firmer but unchanged; sale of 1 car, on track, at 41, and 700 bush, from store, at 43. Corn is dull, and may be quoted nominally at 60 to 65 for Ear and Shelled. Nothing doing in Barley. Rye is quoted at 73@75—last sale at 73.

GROCERIES—Dull, with a drooping tendency. We quote nominally at 12½ to 13 for good to prime Cuba; and 14 to 15 for prime to choice Porto Rico; Crushed 18 to 18½; "A" Coffee, 17½; "B" 16½; fair Rio Coffee, 27@28; prime to choice, 29@30; 80 to 85 for Porto Rico Molasses; $1,10 for New Orleans; 10½ for Rangoon Rice, and 12½ for North Carolina ditto.

FLOUR—Continues quiet and unchanged at $8¼@8½ for Spring Wheat; $9¼@9¾ for half Spring and half Winter; and $10¼@10¾ for all Winter Wheat brands. Sale of 50 bbls Spring at $8½, and 50 bbls Winter at $10,35. Rye Flour is dull at $5¼@5¾—sales of Cornmeal at 75 per bush.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is dull but unchanged at 14½ for Shoulders; 17 for Ribbed Sides, and 23@23½ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quiet, with small sales at 18½—held by some at 19. Mess Pork may be quoted at $28@29, and dull. No movement in Bulk Meats.

SEEDS—Clover Seed is in good supply, and very dull—we heard of a round lot having been offered at $5½, without finding buyers. Timothy Seed is dull and nominal at $3¾@$4 for small lots. Sales of Flax Seed at $2,75@$2,80.

SORGHUM—Is steady but unchanged; sale of 18 bbls at 72 per gallon.

BUTTER—Is firm, with a very good demand; and prime Roll in small packages sells readily at 38@40.

CHEESE—Is quiet but steady, with sales of Common Ohio at 20@21, and Goshen at 24@25.

POTATOES—Sale of 4 cars reported on track at $1,15; also, small sales from store at $1,15@$1,20 per bushel, and $3¼@3¾ per bbl—mostly at $3¼.

TURNIPS—Sales reported of 75 bbls, in lots, at $3,50 per bbl.

Baltimore Cattle Market.

BALTIMORE, March 8.—Beef Cattle.—The offerings during the past week were 820 head, against 1224 head previous week. Owing to the short supply prices show an advance of about 25c per 100 lbs. Of the sales 118 head were bought by Washington butchers, 35 sold to the Government agent, 18 sold to go to New Jersey, a few left over, and the balance were taken by Baltimore butchers. Prices to-day ranged as follows: Very best on sale $8,50@$9,25; first quality, $7,75@8,25; medium, $6,75@$7,75, and scalawags; $4,50@5 per 100 lbs. Average of the market $7,25 per 100 lbs, gross. The market closed dull.

Sheep—The supply and demand has been about equal this week, with sales at 5½@7½c per lb gross—an advance.

Hogs—The supply has been fair this week. Sales slow at $12¼@14 per 100 lbs, net, a decline ½c per lb. Market very dull.

Baltimore Coffee Market.

BALTIMORE, March 9.—Has ruled quiet the past week, though the market is steady for prime, which is scarce; common descriptions are heavy. We report sales of 800 bags prime Rio at 21 cents; 100 do at 20½; 100 do common at 17½c, gold. We give the range, viz: For inferior to common, 17¼@18¼c; fair to good 19@20c; prime 20¼@21c, and choice 21½c, gold. Stock in first and second hands 9,800 bags Rio. Late advices from Rio report prime descriptions of coffee very scarce, and prices had advanced considerably.

Philadelphia Iron Market.

PHILADELPHIA, March 10.—The movements in pig metal are of a limited character. Sales at $47@48 per ton for No. 1 Anthracite; $45 for No. 2, and $42@43 for forge, 4 months. Scotch Pig—an invoice was taken at a price kept secret. Blooms are quiet. We notice charcoal at $130@135 per ton. Manufactured iron continues quiet at former rates.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

Finance and Trade in New York.

STOCKS.

NEW YORK, March 10—At the second Regular and last open Board, the market was stronger, but the only advance of any moment was on Erie. The following were the closing prices: New York Central, 91¾; Erie, 82¾; Reading, 97¾; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 75¾; Northwestern, 26; Cleveland and Toledo, 107¾; United States Sixes, 104½; United States Five-Twenties, 70¾; United States Ten-Forties, 90¾.

MONEY.

Money was very easy towards the close and freely offered at 6@7 per cent. on call. There was an increased activity in the gold room towards the close of the day, and the price was run to 131¾.

GENERAL REMARKS.

The Foreign imports for the week, reach $4,133,295. The advance in freight has checked the export demand for corn, and the market was one cent lower. The excitement in Pork has subsided, and prices are from 50 to 75 cents lower. Lard, heavy and lower, the failure of the leading house in the trade, adding to the general depression. This afternoon, there were rumors of failures in several branches of trade, and if prices continue to decline some money firms must go under.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

There has been a good degree of activity in Breadstuffs during the week, but Provisions, Petroleum and Cotton, have been depressed. Cotton, here, has been in moderate enquiry, and confined chiefly to shippers. The advices from Europe are of an unfavorable nature, which fact, in connection with the decline in gold, caused concessions of from 3 to 5 cents per pound; the market closed at 40@42 cents for Middling. The receipts for the week were 11,300 bales. The exports for the week, were 15,481 bales. Coffee has been dull, and prices are heavy, except for prime, choice grades. Flour—The market has been active; medium grades of Western, are in reduced supply, and prices are firmer; low grades have fluctuated somewhat and prices are somewhat lower; the stock has been considerably reduced, it is now estimated at 270,000 bbls., of which, one-fourth is unsound, the market closed dull, at $7,60@8,00 for Extra State, 8,50@9,00 for shipping Ohio; $12,50@16 for common to choice St. Louis Extras. The wheat market has been active, with more buoyancy; the demand for fresh ground flour having caused millers to purchase more freely; the market to-day was dull and heavy for Spring, but firm for Winter, at $1,50@1,70 for Spring, and $2,52@2,60 for White Canadian Winter. Corn, prices lower, and the market closed heavy, at 68½@72 cents for unsound; 75 cents for mixed Western, in store. In Pork there has been quite a panic, and arrivals have been more liberal, with only a moderate consumptive demand, and there has been more activity among owners to realize; this has caused a decline of $2,50 in Mess Pork; the business, for future delivery, has been limited; the market closed heavy, at $26,25 for Mess; Prime Mess has been moderately active, but prices are uncertain. Sugars—Raw Sugars are extremely dull, and prices have declined; closing heavy, at 10½@10¾ cents for fair to good; Refined Sugars, are dull, at 16¾@17 cents for hards. Whisky—There has been no change in prices, and business is very light, closing at $2,28@2,29 for Western. Petroleum—Crude has gradually declined under more liberal arrivals and an increased stock; business, however, has been very large, and we quote Crude at 26 cents.

DRY GOODS.

At the Dry Goods Exchange the following report is made of Jobbers prices to-day: Brown Sheetings—Wachusett, 36-inch, 25c; Bedford, 18c. Bleached Shirtings—Anthony Manufacturing Company, 36-inch, 31; Palmer, 36-inch, 28c; Wheaton, do. 25c; Palermo, 37-inch, 20c. Prints—Sprague, 20; Hamilton, 20; Dunnell, 18. Arnold, 16c. Delaines—Hamilton, 25c; Pacific, 25c. Ginghams—Glasgow, 25c; Hartford, 23c. Brown Drills—Pepperell, 27½c; Winthrop, 25c. Corset Jeans—Naumkeag 30c; Bates, 22½c. Canton Flannels—Hamilton, 35c; Laconia, F 35c. Ticks—Conestoga, C C A 52½c; do. A 60c. Denims—Boston Brown, 35c; Boston Manufacturing Company, 35c. Hoopskirts—Myers I. X. L. 11½ Inch Tapes, 20 to 40 Hoops, 48 to 73c; do. 3, 68 to $1,12.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, March 10.—The provision market continues dull and almost nominal. Small sales of mess pork were made to-day at from $25,75@26,00, mess beef at $14,25, and, green hams, from slaughtered hogs, at 16c. Lard is neglected and nominally quoted at 17½@17¾c for prime steam rendered. In prime mess, bulk meats and English meats there is no movement whatever.

The limited supply restricts operations in flour, and the market is quiet and without essential change.

Wheat is dull and 1@2c lower on both No. 1 and 2 spring. Sales were made at from $1,23½@1,24½ for the former, and 71@88c for the latter. At the close the market for No. 1 spring is quiet at $1,24.

Corn rules dull, with small sales of No. 1 at 41@41½c, and at 36½c for rejected in store. For delivery in April and May, sales of No. 1 were made at 42@42½c.

The inquiry for oats is limited, but the market rules steady at 24½c for No. 1, and 21@21½ for No. 2 in store.

Rye is quiet, but firmly held, and selling at 53@54c for No. 1, and 52 for No. 2 in store.

Barley continues dull. A car load of good domestic sold at 70c on track, and a car load of common at 50c on track.

New York Market.

NEW YORK, March 10.—Cotton dull and 1@2c lower, at 40@41c for middling. Flour dull and 10@15c lower for common grades; medium and good without decided change at $7,05@7,75 for extra State, $8,15@8,80 for extra round hoop Ohio, $8,85@11 for trade brands, the market closing dull and nominal. Wheat dull and 1@2c lower for common and inferior grades. Corn less active and lower at 68½@74c for unsound. Oats in very moderate request at 35@36c for unsound, and 74@75c for sound. BOATS LEAVING TO-DAY.

Bayard	Moore	Parkersburg.

RIVER, WEATHER, ETC.

The river is still receding steadily at this point, with less than five feet in the channel by the pier marks last evening, and five and a half feet by the Allegheny marks. Telegrams on Saturday reported twenty-eight inches of water at Oil City, and falling. The weather yesterday was cloudy and unsettled, with occasional showers of rain, and there was considerable floating ice in the Allegheny.

Business continues very dull at the wharf, the offerings of freight for all points being very light. Boats experience considerable difficulty in getting a trip, and rates—steamboatmen allege—are ruinously low.

The Argonaut, from Cincinnati, is the only transient arrival we have to report. The Bayard, from Parkersburg, got in on time, with a fair trip, and the Emma Graham, from Zanesville, was due here last night, and will doubtless be found in port this morning.

The Allegheny river packets, with the exception of the Leclaire, are all safely moored at the Allegheny wharf, ready to commence business as soon as there is a rise. The Belle and Echo arrived on Saturday.

The Peter Bolen, a new boat just about completed, made a trial trip yesterday, and everything, we believe performed satisfactorily.

The Financier arrived from Louisville on Friday evening, with a fair trip.

Passengers and shippers should bear in mind that the Bayard, Capt. Geo. D. Moore, is the regular packet for Parkersburg to-day, leaving promptly at 11 a. m.

The Camelia, Capt. J. L. Lytle, is announced for Nashville, and the America, Capt. Golding, for New Orleans, are filling up steadily, and will get off at an early day.

The Leonidas, in command of Capt. M. A. Cox, is filling up rapidly, and will soon be ready to take her departure.

The Savanna, Capt. Jolly, is filling up rapidly for all points on the Upper Mississippi.

The Minnesota, a new boat belonging to the Northern Packet Line Co., is expected to arrive here from Wheeling, where she was built, to-day or to-morrow. She will load after the Savanna.

The Nora was advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Saturday.

We take the following from the Cincinnati Gazette of Saturday:

The Armenia arrived from Pittsburgh for New Orleans with 500 tons freight for Memphis and points below. She has on board 4000 plows. Capt. McCallum received a dispatch from Pink Varble yesterday afternoon, stating that there were seven and a half feet in the canal. As his boat was drawing over six feet, he declined receiving freight here.

The Armadillo, from St. Louis, discharged 100 tuns from here yesterday, and proceeded on her way to Pittsburgh, with a similar amount, finding no inducement in the way of business for remaining here. Mr. Edwin Adams, the well-known actor, shipped a valuable horse on her.

We take the following from the Louisville Courier of Friday:

In the bilious districts of the West and South there has, for a long time, been much needed, an article of stomach Bitters, which, if taken in proper quantities and at the proper time, are a sure preventive of

Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Jaundice, Kidney Complaints, and all Diseases of a similar nature, and a preventive for bilious derangement, regulating the system, and giving tone to the digestive organs, than any other known remedy.

Now that the war is over, there will be thousands seeking homes in the South. No person who values his life should go there without having constantly at hand the BITTERS, as a safeguard against epidemics and maladies engendered by miasma and polluted water.

Travelers to and all residents of, the rank bottoms of the west and south, and the valley of the Mississippi and its tributaries, should provide themselves with the
